Introduction to Supervised Internship

Philosophy

Supervised fieldwork is a critical component of a student's educational program. The fieldwork experience is designed to enhance and refine professional counseling abilities and integrate professional knowledge and skills appropriate to the student's program focus areas. It is expected that each student will be able to incorporate and utilize individual and group counseling skills in accord with the theories of counseling in providing direct services to clients.

Definitions

Internship is defined as an advanced supervised experience in counseling. Internship is designed to provide either an in-depth and breadth of experience required in practical work settings. Internship is a post practicum experience in which the student gains practical and professional experience in the work setting.

Site refers to any setting in which the student is working in order complete training requirements. (Examples are community mental health center, college counseling center, hospital, school, student affairs offices, etc.)

Site Supervisor refers to the staff member at each Site to whom the student is directly accountable while working at the Site. Students must receive supervision from a professional counselor with a minimum of Master's degree with two years of qualified experience and is a licensed professional counselor, certified school counselor, licensed clinical social worker, or a licensed psychologist.

University supervisor refers to the faculty member who provides group supervision, instruction and administrative coordination. This individual acts as the liaison for the University and is the contact person for the on-Site Supervisor.

Possible Benefits of Supervising Interns

1. Interns can lessen the workload of a site and may increase its service capability.
2. Interns at a site may bring new ideas, with positive feedback on present functioning procedures and creative new ideas for improvements. More mutual interactions can evolve, i.e. workshops, speakers, consultation...
3. The communication and interaction between the site and the Counselor Education Training Program can be increased.

Goals of the Internship Experience

The student intern will:

1. Develop and enhance advanced counseling skills within the professional work setting through clinical work; review videorecorded counseling sessions; and receive and seek supervision on these sessions from site and university supervisors.
2. Benefit from the experience of a professional mentoring relationship with a practitioner working on-site in the student's specialization through direct individual supervision (minimum of one hour per week).
3. Become aware of and appropriately utilize assessment techniques used with clients in the internship setting.
4. Demonstrate an understanding of the theoretical and philosophical bases of counseling; and identify a developing personal theory of counseling that reflects awareness of ethical, developmental, and diversity related concerns.
5. Understand, record, and clearly communicate the essential factors in each client case, demonstrating effective case conceptualization skills.
6. Gain an understanding of and experience consultation with community agencies, families, teachers, and/or site representatives as appropriate to the site setting.
7. Acquire and demonstrate adequate knowledge of available referral sources.
8. Demonstrate knowledge of emergency and administrative policies, procedures, ethical and legal aspects of the site.

2. Mutual understanding between the Site and the Counselor Education program exists on the basic philosophy and goals in relation to counseling.
3. Provision is made for on-going professional development for the site supervisor staff and the intern.

4. The Site will provide physical arrangements, which are conducive to a positive learning environment e.g., office and desk space, privacy for interviewing, the ability to video record sessions (not necessarily the equipment necessary for recording), and adequate guidance relative to site record keeping requirements with appropriate client permission forms for recording.
5. The Site will provide the intern with a variety of experiences typical of those encountered by the Site counseling staff.
6. The Site will regard the intern as a professional in training and accord the intern the generally expected professional courtesies

EVALUATION AND GRADING

The grade for the internship experience is based substantially on the Site Supervisor evaluation, in conjunction with the University Supervisor's evaluation, and the intern's self-evaluation. Completion of the course assignments, class participation, and participation in peer group consultation sessions will also influence the final grade for the course. Failure to complete and hand in assignments may result in an Incomplete or Unsatisfactory grade for the semester.

Site Supervision Evaluation

The Site Supervisor and intern student are requested to provide two evaluations each semester of the intern's performance. These are to be completed both at midterm and at the end of the semester. It is the intern's responsibility to arrange these evaluation meetings, make copies of the completed forms, and send the original to the faculty supervisor.

Students will also complete a final evaluation of their site and site supervisors. The students are encouraged to discuss their experience and evaluation directly with their site supervisor. The evaluations will be collected by the Internship Coordinator at the conclusion of the site internship, and feedback will be provided to the site and supervisors as requested and over time.
