Candidates for graduation must complete all degree requirements prior to a degree being awarded. Stated degree honors for candidates for graduation may change based on grades earned in the spring and/or summer semesters.
Dear Graduates, Family, and Friends:

Welcome to the University of Wyoming’s 2018 spring commencement ceremonies. Thank you for being here to celebrate the greatest day in the academic calendar of our university.

Graduates, congratulations on your graduation! You have dedicated your life these past years to realizing your dream of a college degree. I think you will find—like I did—that a college degree will open doors of opportunity to you in your career and your life. And as much as the unparalleled value in the education you have received from the University of Wyoming, you will cherish the friendships and memories developed over these years.

Family and friends, thank you for the love and support you have given to your graduate. I often say that no one completes a degree alone. Thank you for being a strong support system to your loved one and for always being there with encouragement and support. Today, we also celebrate you.

Graduates, you are about to undertake a new transition in your life. I am confident that the knowledge and experiences you have gained at the University of Wyoming have prepared you for this next step and will carry you far, no matter the path you choose. I encourage you to continue learning, and to seek out ways to apply what you have learned for the benefit of others.

Remember, you will always be a Cowboy or Cowgirl. Please stay in touch with us and come back to your alma mater often. You are always welcomed.

Again, congratulations! The UW family is most proud of you.

Laurie S. Nichols

President
Wyoming Territorial Seal

The University of Wyoming provides a transitional chapter in the history of the central Rocky Mountain frontier. In 1886, when the university was founded, the Wyoming Territory was nearly two decades old. The territorial seal is reproduced in beautiful stained glass above the west door of Old Main, the first campus building.

In the upper half of the seal, a railroad train is set against the mountains. In the lower left, a plow, a pick, a shovel, and a shepherd’s crook are depicted. An arm upholds a sword in the lower right. Above the Norman shield appears the inscription Cedant Arma Togae (let arms yield to the gown).

In 1890, when Wyoming became a state, the official state seal was adopted. Historically, the university seal bridges the territory and the state. It symbolizes educational excellence and complements the growth of the state it serves.

Alma Mater

Where the western lights’ long shadows
Over boundless prairies fling
And the mountain winds are vocal
And the College throws its portals
’Tis the College! Ah, we know it!
With thy dear name, Wyoming.
First woman in the United States
While the flaming fire of sunset
And the rays that light upon it
Shrine of many joys and tears,
Yonder we can see it standing,
To her our hearts shall cling,
Shall cling forever more.
And so our songs we bring,
Our Alma Mater sing,
To thee the morning star shall rise,
And the stars of evening bid us sleep.

Ragtime Cowboy Joe

He always sings raggy music to his cattle as he swings
Back and forward in his saddle on a horse
(pretty good horse!) He’s got a syncopated gait
And you ought to hear the meter to the roar of his repeater
When they hear him come,
How they run (yes run!)
How they run (yes run!)
Break away, win today.
Son of a gun from old Wyoming
Ain’t he a sight for species eyes?
Carry on triumphantly—Come on and fight!
For the state and nation, the flag and the stars.
Son of a gun from old Wyoming
Ain’t he a sight for species eyes?
Carry on triumphantly—Come on and fight!
For the state and nation, the flag and the stars.

Fight, Wyoming, Fight

Come on, Cowboys, gold and brown!
Show them how, boys, hold them down!
Start right now, boys, don’t delay,
Break away, win today.
Take that ball, and one, two, three!
Carry on triumphantly—Come on and fight!
Fight! Fight, you Cowboys, fight!
Come on and fight to victory!

Academic Regalia

Academic regalia originated in the oldest European universities. Many of these institutions continue to show great diversity in their academic dress. In contrast, American colleges and universities adopted a uniform dress code with the following descriptions:

Procession—Doctoral and master’s degree candidates precede bachelor’s candidates. Marching order of the faculty is according to academic rank and tenure.

Mace—Borne in UW processions by the marshal, the mace is symbolic of the president’s leadership and authority. The short, club-like staff of gleaming metal originated in medieval England. High-ranking officials were accompanied by bodyguards who held the formidable weapon ready to protect the dignitary. The UW mace is crowned with a cap of flames, signifying knowledge and enlightenment.

Gown—The gown for the bachelor’s degree is worn closed; it has pointed sleeves. The gown for the master’s degree may be worn open or closed; it has oblong sleeves with an arc cut away in front. Neither is trimmed. The gown for the doctoral degree is faced down the front with three bars of the same fabric circling the sleeves. This gown may be trimmed in black or a color that corresponds with the subject area. The doctoral tassel is gold. Generally the tassel is worn on the right front side of the mortarboard before the degree is conferred and transferred to the left afterward.

Caps—Commonly known as mortarboards, caps are black and the tassels may be black or a color that corresponds with the subject area. The doctoral tassel is gold. Generally the tassel is worn on the right front side of the mortarboard before the degree is conferred and transferred to the left afterward.

Colors—For all academic purposes, including tassels of caps, trimmings of doctoral gowns, and edging of hoods, colors are associated with subject areas. The following colors designate UW’s colleges and schools:

- Agriculture and Natural Resources—maize
- Arts and Sciences—white
- Business—sapphire blue
- Education—light blue
- Engineering and Applied Science—orange
- Honors Program—gold
- Health Sciences—green
- Law—purple
- Ph.D.—dark blue
- Ed.D.—light blue
- Energy Resources—golden yellow
- Environment and Natural Resources—bright green

Hoods—It is customary in most institutions to dispense with the hood for bachelor’s degrees. UW hoods the master’s and doctoral candidates as part of the ceremony. Candidates for the professional diploma wear their master’s hood.

The hood is always black. The master’s hood is three and one-half feet long. The doctoral hood is four feet long with side panels. Hoods are lined with the official color(s) of the college or university conferring the degree. The edge of the hood is velvet, and the color of the fabric indicates the degree subject.

Ph.D.—Deep sapphire blue
Ed.D.—Light blue
M.P.H.—Dark blue
M.C.H.E.—Green
Professional diploma—Bright green

She is an internationally recognized leader in her field. Kay has served in administrative and faculty roles at UW. She is retiring as a professor of learning, design, and technology in the College of Education with deep gratitude for the opportunities she has had here.

James D. King is a professor of political science in the School of Politics, Public Affairs, and International Studies. He joined the UW faculty in 1992 to teach "American and Wyoming Government" and other classes related to American politics. He is a former president of the Southwestern Political Science Association and a recipient of the College of Arts and Science's Exemplary Faculty Award, the Promoting Intellectual Engagement in the First Year (PIE) Award for freshman classes, and the "Top Prof" Award of the University of Wyoming Mortar Board Society.

Keynote Speaker

Sharon Haley Linhart

A respected industry and community leader, Sharon Linhart brings keen business acumen, communications insights, and a unique style. Since she founded Linhart PR in 1996, the Denver-based firm gained a respected reputation as a global powerhouse known for uber-satisfied clients, award-winning results, talented staff, and an enviable culture. LInhart's professional strengths include crisis communications and strategic planning, executive counsel, and issues management. With her sensibility and motivational skills, Linhart is able to convene disparate parties and help resolve reputation-damaging issues.

Her civic and professional involvement includes the Boettcher Foundation Board of Trustees, Junior Achievement board, the Denver Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America trustees, the Women’s Forum of Colorado, National Western Association, and the Denver Press Club. Linhart graduated from the University of Wyoming with a B.A. in journalism in 1973. She helped to establish the Bristol Photojournalism Fellowship at UW in honor of a classmate, Larsh K. Bristol.

HONORARY MARSHALS

Robert L. Kelly
Ph.D., Professor
Archaeology

Michelle Buchanan
Ph.D., Professor
Elementary & Early Childhood Education

Robert Kelly has worked in the field of archaeology since 1973 and has been a professor of anthropology at the University of Wyoming since 1997. He is a past president of the Society for American Archaeology, and is editor of American Antiquity, the leading journal of North American archaeology. He has authored over 100 articles, books, and monographs and is considered a world authority on hunting and gathering societies.

Michelle Buchanan has been a faculty member in the Department of Elementary and Early Childhood Education at the University of Wyoming for 21 years. She teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in early childhood education and early childhood special education. Academic interests include family-centered practice in early childhood special education, strategies for inclusion, and play, disability, and learning. She is the recipient of the Lantz Distinguished Professor in Education award.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Erin Campbell

Dr. Erin Campbell is the Wyoming State Geologist, the first woman to hold this position. After receiving a bachelor’s degree from Occidental College, she earned a Ph.D. in geology at the University of Wyoming, then worked as a geologist for Chevron several years before returning to Wyoming. During her 15 years at UW, she taught in the Department of Geology and Geophysics, directed the Geology Field Camp, and conducted research in structural geology and geomechanics. She was appointed by Governor Mead as Wyoming State Geologist in the fall of 2017. Campbell also enjoys raising her two teenage children, as well as camping, fishing, and quilting.

HONORARY MARSHALS

Penne Ainsworth
   Ph.D., Professor, Accounting

Bruce A. Cameron
   Ph.D., Associate Professor, Family and Consumer Sciences

Penne Ainsworth has been at the University of Wyoming since 1997, coming here from Kansas State University as an associate professor. She became a full professor in 2001 and head of the Department of Accounting in 2004. In 2010, Ainsworth became the associate dean and served in that position until 2014 when she returned to head the (now) Department of Accounting and Finance. Ainsworth is retiring from UW this year. She received her Ph.D. from the University of Nebraska–Lincoln in 1988. Ainsworth has received many teaching awards, including UW’s John P. Ellbogen Meritorious Classroom Teaching Award in 2002.

Bruce A. Cameron is department head/professor in family and consumer sciences. He was educated in Australia, receiving his B.Sc., Honours Class I in Textile Technology from the University of New South Wales in 1983, and his Ph.D. in Textile Technology in 1986. Bruce teaches in the Design, Merchandising and Textiles option in family and consumer sciences with his main emphases being textile science and merchandising. He is a member of numerous professional groups related to textiles and apparel, and was the president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, a national student honorary in family and consumer sciences from 2014–16.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Michael J. Sullivan

Michael J. Sullivan, who grew up in Douglas and practiced law in Casper, was Wyoming governor from 1987–1995. In 1996 Sullivan received a fellowship at the Institute of Politics at Harvard University. He was U.S. Ambassador to Ireland from 1998–2001. Sullivan is a member of the College of Law Advisory Board and a past chairman of the W. D. Ruckelshaus Institute Board.

Sullivan earned a B.S. degree in petroleum engineering (1961) and a law degree (1964) from UW. He is a member of the College of Engineering Hall of Fame and was named a Distinguished Graduate of the College of Law. In 2016 Sullivan was awarded the Citizen of the West Award by the National Western Stock Show.

Sullivan met his future wife Jane Metzler while both were students at UW. The Sullivans reside in Casper and have three children and seven grandchildren.

Back east” could not hold the attention of abstract expressionist painter Neltje, who chose life on a Wyoming ranch forty-seven years ago and fully embraced Wyoming, its people, culture, and land, as her own. Neltje has a distinguished career as an artist with exhibitions and awards from institutions across the country. Her patronage of the arts and support of that community are without equal. A genuine renaissance woman, her creative energy and passion carry over into her life as a rancher, educator, entrepreneur, community developer, benefactor, champion of contemporary visual art and literature, mother, and grandmother.

Neltje stepped up in 1969 to save the historic Sheridan Inn from destruction, and ran the inn for nearly two decades. She founded the Jentel Foundation to support artists and writers and their creative renewal. Her vision extended to city planning with Wrench Ranch Hills, a visually integrated and cohesive pattern of development that will shape the future of Sheridan and attract new jobs to the city.

Neltje has consistently kept a greater community in her sights. She is a true visionary whose own vision, focus, and deep involvement in the community have helped to heighten the insight and awareness of those around her.

For all of your contributions, Neltje, the University of Wyoming is honored to bestow upon you the degree of Doctor of Arts, honoris causa.
Margaret “Maggie” Webster Scarlett has spent her life in tireless service to the state of Wyoming and the nation through her advocacy for literacy programs, libraries, museums, and the arts.

Scarlett founded the National Museum of Wildlife Art in Jackson Hole, where some of the most valuable pieces of wildlife art in the world are housed. She also serves on the board of the Buffalo Bill Center of the West and the McCracken Research Library, where her efforts have resulted in the formation of a nationally-known research center. Scarlett received national recognition for her passion and work when, in 2002, she was appointed to the National Institute of Museum and Library Services Board by the President of the United States.

In the midst of that work, Scarlett remains active in her local community by serving on the boards of causes such as the Teton Literacy Program, the Dance with the Stars fundraising event, and the Patriot’s Pathways program at Jackson Hole High School.

Scarlett graduated from the University of Wyoming with a degree in speech pathology and audiology in 1963, and has been a dedicated supporter of the university ever since. She served as the director of the University of Wyoming Art Museum for 10 years, and was awarded the Distinguished Alumnus Award in 2004 in recognition of her many accomplishments.

For all of your contributions, Margaret Webster Scarlett, the University of Wyoming is honored to bestow upon you the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.
