COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AMBASSADORS

ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS!

The University of Wyoming's College of Education Ambassadors serve as leaders, role models, and supporters of the College of Education to promote a positive public image.

As representatives, they work with alumni, current students, faculty, prospective students, and guests. Students selected as ambassadors have excellent opportunities to further develop personal, social communication and leadership skills.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF COLLEGE AMBASSADORS

College of Education Ambassadors need to be willing to serve for the fall and spring semesters, to dedicate 1 hour a week, and to participate in the following activities:

- Act as a liaison between students, prospective students, alumni, and distinguished guests of the university.
- Members are expected to attend all meetings, which will be held bimonthly during the first and third weeks of the month, usually on Wednesdays at 12:30 p.m. for approx. 30-45 minutes (subject to change, if necessary).
- Attend and participate in a minimum of 2 outside events beyond meetings.
- Participate in at least one standing committee and one meeting of another College of Education's RSO each semester.
- Attend the Annual College of Education Banquet.

DESIRED QUALITIES OF COLLEGE AMBASSADORS

College of Education Ambassadors should possess the following qualities:

- Commitment to the College's development and improvement
- Enthusiasm for and pride in the College
- Self-direction and high level of motivation;
- Strong communication skills
- Strong personal and social skills
- Full time undergraduate students enrolled in any academic major in the College of Education, have completed at least one semester (15 credit hours) in the College, and have a minimum GPA of 3.0.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Ambassador applications are now available in the Dean's Office and online. They are brief and easy to complete, however they do require a recommendation signature from a faculty member. Individual interviews of applicants qualifying to become ambassadors will occur as applications are completed.
