The Enhanced Oil Recovery Institute (EORI) at the University of Wyoming invites applications for a Petroleum or Reservoir Geologist, Mineralogist, or Geophysicist. The successful candidate will be expected to work closely with EORI leadership and fellow researchers to support project work for our oil and gas industry partners. Familiarity with minerology, petrology, rock analysis, core descriptions, core and log analysis, oil generation, migration, accumulation and reservoir characteristics as well as EOR, IOR, ROZ, drilling methods, and water, chemical and CO2 flooding is essential. Estimated pay range is $40,000-$60,000 annually. The position is a full time, fiscal year academic professional appointment.

Required qualifications:
- Master’s degree – Petroleum Geologist, Reservoir Geologist, Mineralogist, Petrophysicist, or Geophysicist
- 2-5 years industry/field experience in Wyoming, Northern Rockies, or analogous region
- Position is located in Casper, Wyoming
- Project related travel (up to 50%) within Wyoming
- Excellent communication skills within the English language.

Highly Desired Qualifications:
- PhD – Geology (Petroleum, Reservoir, Minerology, Geophysicist)
- Project and Management experience
- Minerology Laboratory experience
- Professional Registration (P.G.)

The Enhanced Oil Recovery Institute is funded by the Wyoming State Legislature to assist Wyoming producers with their enhanced and improve oil recovery efforts through technology transfer and training. For more information about the Enhanced Oil Recovery Institute, visit our website at www.uwyo.edu/eori.

The University of Wyoming is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law and University policy. Please see www.uwyo.edu/diversity/fairness.

We conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of the background check. Qualified applicants must be eligible to work in the US by the date of hire. This position does not offer sponsorship.
Application Materials Required:

Review of applications will start immediately and will close at 5:00 PM MDT on April 17, 2016. When applying, please provide a cover letter, resume and three work related references in one pdf document. Please send application materials to Steven.Carpenter@uwyo.edu.