UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING REGULATIONS

Subject: Compensation for Academic Personnel
Number: UW Regulation 2-3

I. PURPOSE

To establish policies and procedures for establishing compensation for Academic Personnel, including salary for initial appointments and changes in salary associated with a change in appointment.

II. DEFINITIONS

Academic Personnel: University employees with academic designations and appointments described in UW Regulation 2-1.

III. COMPENSATION

A. Base Salary

The base salary for most Academic Personnel is for work assigned as part of the standard workload, including periods when classes may not be in session but when the University is officially open. The base salary for Academic Personnel performing administrative duties and other duties beyond the usual academic assignments and for most other salaried staff employees is for work performed during the fiscal year.

B. Supplementary Compensation from Funds Disbursed Through the University

1. When approved by the appropriate University authorities, full time academic personnel on academic year appointments may earn supplemental pay for additional duties, providing these duties are not included in the standard workload. Supplemental pay will be prorated accordingly. A maximum of an additional 3/9ths of the base faculty salary may be earned in supplemental pay. Any exceptions to this limitation require prior approval of the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs, in consultation with the President, and may require prior approval by other offices and federal agencies as well.
2. When approved by the appropriate University authorities, academic personnel who have been granted a calendar or academic year sabbatical leave may receive compensation from sponsored research grants and contracts awarded to the University, up to a maximum of forty (40) percent of their approved academic year salary, if funding from the grant or contract is an integral component of the sabbatical proposal.

3. Academic personnel may be eligible for additional supplemental compensation. See Employee Handbook for details.

IV. Initial Appointment

The recommendation for appointment of faculty and other Academic Personnel shall be submitted by the head of the unit through appropriate academic and/or administrative channels, and shall be accompanied by a recommendation for a starting salary. The recommendation for a starting salary shall be based upon academic rank, academic assignment, academic credentials and market conditions. Special consideration shall be given to the following: (1) teaching ability and performance; (2) research ability and achievement; and (3) ability and performance in continuing education, public service, committee work, and special assignments designed to promote the quality and effectiveness of academic programs and services.

Full time and part time benefited Academic Personnel shall be appointed by the President of the University; however, tenure, promotion, and 5-year fixed term appointments shall not be granted without approval by the Board of Trustees (see UW Regulations 2-1 and 2-7). Part time non-benefited Academic Personnel shall be appointed by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs.

The President shall report personnel actions to the Trustees annually.

V. Changes in Salary Rates

All changes in salary rates are subject to the availability of funds and the adoption of the Annual Salary Distribution Policy by the Board of Trustees. Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, Academic Personnel shall be advised by the President, or the President’s designee, of any changes in individual salary rates being recommended to and subsequently approved by the Board of Trustees through the Annual Salary Distribution Policy.

In order to receive a salary increase for a promotion in rank, a faculty member must be recommended for promotion as prescribed by UW Regulation 2-1. Changes in salary rates due to retention offers are at the discretion of the Dean or Director of the School or College in consultation with the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. A change in salary due to a retention offer would be at the discretion of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs if greater than a five percent increase.
VI. Changes in Appointment

Individuals who are appointed department heads, deans, and vice presidents move in and out of such administrative roles during the course of an academic career. When such an individual accepts increased administrative responsibilities, increased salary may be provided to reflect, in part, the added responsibility. When such increments are provided, a written record should be made thereof in the initial letter of appointment. Upon leaving an administrative position and returning to the faculty or staff, and consistent with Section V of this Regulation, an individual’s salary should be reduced to reflect, among other considerations, the change in responsibility and, in some instances, a shift to a nine-month academic year appointment.

The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, working in concert with the President, has the responsibility, as delegated by the Board of Trustees, to assure that salary adjustments are made, as appropriate, to reflect changes in roles and responsibilities.

VII. Reappointment After Break in Service

Academic personnel reappointed by the University following a break in service is not guaranteed any appointment or salary considerations and is subject to all provisions of the initial appointment section of this regulation, excepting for those rehired based on a 2-13 reorganization. For the sake of clarity, a shift between fiscal year appointment and academic year appointment is not by itself considered a break in service.

VII. Temporary Salary Increase

A temporary increase in salary may be approved by the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs to perform the duties and responsibilities of a faculty member or University officer to be absent for two months or more but less than two (2) years or to temporarily fill a vacant position.
