Program fees are based on the college in which each class for which you are registered is taught! For the most part, classes you take will most likely be within your major college, but other classes to fulfill general or other requirements for your degree may be taught in a different college and will be assessed a program fee based on that college!

Program fees will only be assessed for course codes below the 5000-level. If you are taking courses above the 5000-level, then you will not be assessed program fees for those courses, but other fees specific to these courses may apply.
