What leadership positions or experiences have you held before (in and out of the chapter)?

Describe your understanding of FSB and its purpose.

Describe why you want to serve on the board.

Please briefly indicate your experience in handling conduct, judicial, and/or standards affairs (if applicable) and the process in which you go about making difficult decisions.

If you have previously had chapter or campus conduct (including meetings with Res Life staff or chapter standards board), please describe violations and what learning/progress you have made since those violations.

Dates and Times to Know:

- Applications will be reviewed December 11.
- Selected Board Members will be expected to participate in a training on January 20 as well as be available for hearings/meetings on Thursdays at 4 pm during the spring semester.

I confirm that the information provided above is accurate. If selected, I will be devoted to the highest ideals and principles of the FSL community and conduct myself in a professional manner that is consistent with the shared values of the community. Furthermore, I will familiarize myself with the constitution, bylaws, and member safety policies of the FSL councils and Code of Conduct of UW and respect the confidentiality of the hearings.

I recognize that I can and will afford the time and means over the next two terms to serve the FSL community through the FSB and be in attendance for requested hearings, trainings, and business meetings. If I am unable to fulfil these duties, I will be asked to step down or removed from this position.
