Susan McKay International Research Fund
2016 Application

Application Form to be submitted to Dr. Stephanie Anderson, redhead@uwyo.edu, by Friday, March 4, 2016. Applicants will be notified by March 30 about the results of the selection process. Award winners are required to turn in a brief report on their research and findings and to make a public presentation to the UW Gender and Women’s Studies community within two semesters of completing research.

Name: _______________________________________________________

Campus Address: _______________________________________________

Phone: _______________________________________________________

Email: _________________________________________________________

W #: ___________________________________________________________

Status:

1. UW faculty title and department: _______________________________

2. UW graduate student year, planned degree, and department
   _____________________________________________________________

Please submit the following application materials:

1. Description of project and its direct relevance to the purpose of the fund which is: To support scholarship that proactively addresses women’s and girl’s human rights, armed conflict, and/or peace. (250 to 500 words)

2. A detailed budget and timelines:
   a) Airfare round trip/visa
   b) Per diem
   c) Supplies and materials
   d) Translation
   e) Costs related to data collection and analysis
   f) Other sources applied to and amount requested/granted from each source
   g) Total anticipated costs

3. For graduate students: Please indicate a probable faculty mentor and include a letter of support from this individual.

Do you agree to the following?

1. Submit a 250 to 500 word report of the research and its outcomes to Dr. Stephanie Anderson at redhead@uwyo.edu within two semesters of carrying out the funded research.

2. Submit accounting of actual expenditures.

3. Disseminate scholarly findings through a public lecture, within the academic year after you carries out the research that the McKay fund supported.

Circle one: YES  NO

Signature________________________________________ Date________________