

Haub School of Environment and Natural Resource Scholarships Academic Year 2019-2020

All UW scholarship opportunities can be found in Academic Works \(www.uwyo.academicworks.com\).

The deadline to apply is February 15, 2019.

Chiles and Evelyn Plummer Scholarship

The Haub School's Plummer Scholarship recognizes outstanding undergraduate and graduate students passionate about environmental and natural resource studies. Awards range from $500 to $5000. Selection criteria include academic performance, extracurricular merit, and financial need. The application deadline is February 15.

Demonstrated financial need (via FAFSA) is no longer a requirement for this scholarship.*

Outdoor Recreation and Tourism Management Scholarship

The Outdoor Recreation & Tourism Management Scholarship is available to undergraduates earning a BS in Outdoor Recreation and Tourism Management degree at the Haub School of Environment and Natural Resources. Awards will be made based on academic performance, extracurricular merit, and financial need. Applicants must be officially declared in ORTM to be considered for this award. The application deadline is February 15.

Haub School Research and Creative Activities Grant Proposals

This grant, offered three times each year, is available to undergraduate and graduate students to support student research or creative activities related to the environment or natural resources. All current UW students engaged in ENR-related work will be considered. Awards will not exceed $1000 per student. The next deadline is February 15 for summer funding. Applications available in Academic Works.

External Scholarships

Morris K. Udall Scholarship

The Udall Foundation annually awards scholarships to college sophomores and juniors for leadership, public service, and commitment to issues related to American Indian nations or to the environment. The Udall Scholarship honors the legacies of Morris Udall and Stewart Udall, whose careers had a significant impact on American Indian self-governance, health care, and the stewardship of public lands and natural resources. The online application is available now. Interested students should contact Maggie Bourque, maggie@uwyo.edu, for details. The internal deadline for applications is February 1, 2019.

Doris Duke Conservation Scholars Program

Applications for the Doris Duke Conservation Scholars Program at the University of California Santa Cruz are now available. Each March 20 early-undergraduate Scholars from around the country are selected to participate in a two-year conservation mentorship program centered on the summers between academic years. The goal of the program is to serve students from groups traditionally underrepresented in conservation, across disciplines, who can contribute to diversifying, redefining, and strengthening efforts to protect land, wildlife, and water. Applications are due by February 8, 2019. Interested students should contact Maggie Bourque, maggie@uwyo.edu, for details.