

TOWN MEETINGS

The UW Internationalization Lab, a 360-degree review of UW's efforts to provide international opportunities for Wyoming, is coming to your town! We need your input to help us complete the picture of Wyoming's international efforts, as well as what we can do to improve.

- March 29 Laramie
Albany County Public Library
- April 5 Cheyenne
Laramie County Public Library, Cottonwood Room
- April 12 Casper
UW Outreach Building
- April 24 Gillette
Campbell County Public Library, Wyoming Room

6:30pm - 8:00pm
(for each location)

Photographer: Chris Mitchell (Over July 2011, Location: Santa Ana, California)

Globalization is no longer an emerging trend but a national consensus. While universities have long been preparing students to become engaged citizens in their communities, today those communities are increasingly interconnected and global. The University of Wyoming wants to ensure we meet the challenge of preparing our citizens by having a comprehensive strategy that includes internationalization at home and engagement with global issues and partners.

For more information, please visit

uwyo.edu/intllab or call (307) 766-3678