

BIOLOGICAL CONTROL

Predatory mites provide biological control by feeding on spider mites, thrips, and other insects. They are most effective in situations where prey populations are relatively low.

IPM