

Division of Kinesiology and Health Intellectual Community Seminar, Spring 2018
Tuesdays, 12:20-1:20 pm in Corbett Building 138

Dates	Presenters	Titles
01/23/2018	Kelly Corrine Hall, MPH, CHES Colorado School of Public Health The University of Northern Colorado	Health Education and Advocacy: Creating Culturally Appropriate Health Care for the LGBTQ Community
02/06/2018	Shaochen Huang, MS Doctoral Student Division of Kinesiology and Health University of Wyoming	The Baseline mTBI Screening Test On Club Sport Athletes
	Daniel Davis Undergraduate Student Division of Kinesiology and Health University of Wyoming	Musculoskeletal Modeling: Attempting to Predict Quadriceps Strengths by Developing Subject-Specific Models
02/20/2018	Meghan Critchley Master's Student Division of Kinesiology and Health University of Wyoming	The Effect of Mid-flight Rotation on Landing Mechanics
	Jacob Layer, MS Doctoral Student Division of Kinesiology and Health University of Wyoming	Isometric Assessment of Strength: Benefits and Limitations
03/06/2018	Christine Porter, PhD Associate Professor Division of Kinesiology and Health University of Wyoming	Significance: Designing Research to Tackle Our Wickedest Health Problems
03/20/2018	Residency Program in Cheyenne	TBD
04/03/2018	Richard Johnson, MD Professor School of Medicine University of Colorado Denver	Camels, Hibernating Bears and Evolution: How They Can Give Insights into The Etiology of Obesity and Diabetes
04/17/2018	Robert Elbin III, PhD Assistant Professor Office for Sport Concussion Research University of Arkansas	A Research Update on Sport-Related Concussion: "What's Going On Here"
04/24/2018	D. Paul Thomas, PhD Professor Emeritus Division of Kinesiology and Health University of Wyoming	Does the Pericardium Restrict Extent of Left Ventricular Hypertrophy and Consequently VO2 Max Changes
05/01/2018	Residency Program in Cheyenne	TBD