² As scheduled, the class has more minutes than necessary for a 3.0 credit class. The class will not actually meet for more than the time required. However, the class is designed to end on Wednesday, March 8th, prior to the Saturday, March 18th, administration of the MPRE. The final is currently set for Friday, March 9th.

³ Oil & Gas Law is a prerequisite.

⁴ As a prerequisite for this course, students must have received a final grade of B or higher in both Legal Writing I and Legal Writing II. Enrollment in this course is limited to 12 qualifying students on a first-come, first-serve basis by registration. If this course is oversubscribed, preference will be given to 3L students. Additional students will be placed on a waitlist with preference given to 3L students.

⁵ Trusts & Estates is a prerequisite for this course.

⁶ Water Law & Policy is a prerequisite for this course.

⁸ Prerequisites are Income Taxation, Business Organizations, and Business Entities Taxation.

¹¹ Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. Defender Aid clinic enrollment is limited to 8 students, 7 determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. If the registration is oversubscribed additional students will be placed on a waitlist. Completion of, or concurrent enrollment in, Criminal Procedure and/or Criminal Adjudication strongly recommended.

¹² Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. EENR clinic enrollment is limited to 8 students. Acceptance is based on an application and interview process. This clinic is run in conjunction with the Wyoming Attorney General's Office. This course is a great opportunity to acquire hands-on experience. Please note that this course requires a year-long commitment so students must register for this course during both the fall and spring semesters. Prerequisite: Administrative Law.

¹³ Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. Family & Immigrant Justice clinic enrollment is limited to 8 students; 7 determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. If the registration is oversubscribed, additional students will be placed on a waitlist. Priority will be given to students who have completed the Domestic Violence course or who will be taking it concurrently with the clinic. Recommended courses: Children & the Law, Domestic Violence and Family Law.

¹⁴ Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. Prosecution Assistance clinic enrollment is limited to 8 students; 7 determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. If the registration is oversubscribed additional students will be placed on a waitlist. Completion of, or concurrent enrollment in, Criminal Adjudication and/or Criminal Procedure strongly recommended.

¹⁷ Offered for a letter grade only. Estate Planning practicum enrollment is limited to 8 students; 7 determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. If the registration is oversubscribed, additional students will be placed on a waitlist. Completion of Trusts & Estates prior to enrolling, plus either have taken or are currently enrolled in Professional Responsibility. New 3L students preferred, followed by new 2L students that meet class requirements, followed by returning 3L students.

¹⁸ Offered for S/U credit only. A description of the legal externships available in the spring semester and an application is included on the law school website. If you are interested in an externship, you must submit an application and resume to Professor Ken Chestek at kchestek@uwyo.edu by November 15th. 3L students may NOT take a legal clinic in the same semester in which they participate in an extern program, unless they obtain prior written permission from both the Externship Director and the Clinic Director.

¹⁹ Gift & Estate Taxation will run from the beginning of the semester through the middle of the semester with the final taking place in the middle of the semester. This course will precede Estate Planning. There will be 1 makeup class scheduled on a Friday of Professor Delaney's choosing.
