\(^1\) CAMBRIDGE SUMMER LAW INSTITUTE Summer 2019

Instructors: Noah Novogrodsky/Sam Kalen / e-mail contact: Christine.reed@uwyo.edu

I. WHY CAMBRIDGE?

Cambridge is one of the most famous places to visit in the world today and home to one of the world’s great universities – the University of Cambridge. Nestled in the heart of the United Kingdom near London, Cambridge offers an unparalleled learning experience in a Harry Potter-style medieval environment that will inspire and motivate you. The City straddles the historic Cam River and is home to medieval and modern buildings, pubs, theaters, museums, restaurants, shops, book stores, and coffee houses. The Cambridge community is made up of multilingual faculty and students from all over the world who partake in academic and social life in a collegial environment. Cambridge is well-known for its great minds and contributions in the sciences (Newton, Darwin and Hawking) and international law (Coke, Lauterpacht and Crawford) and is the ideal venue for discussion and development of topical issues in these important fields.

II. PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The purpose of the Cambridge Summer Law Institute is to provide students with the opportunity to study law at one of the pre-eminent institutions for international legal studies and bring Cambridge minds and ideas to students in an ideal learning atmosphere. For two weeks, students will explore topical international legal events in the European Union (EU) up close (e.g., the Brexit Crisis) and study the impact of these events on the development of economic and human rights law and policy under the tutelage of leading experts in the field. The program will take place at historic Hughes Hall (known informally as the “Law College”) at Cambridge, where students reside, dine and participate in lectures. Students also will dine in the Fourteenth Century Old Hall of Queens’ College and participate in lectures and events at the Lauterpacht Center for International Law, the scholarly home of International law at the University of Cambridge. The program will include a short train ride into London to visit the renowned Inns of Court to observe first-hand the world of Barristers and the practice of law at the Royal Courts of Justice.

III. ELIGIBILITY

We will accept applications from law students enrolled at any law school in the world, or graduate students in related disciplines.

IV. ADMISSIONS

To Apply, interested students must fill out the online application form and submit a non-refundable $1000 seat deposit at time of registration.
V. 2019 PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Dates: July 29 - August 9, 2019 (class meetings)
Location: Cambridge, England

Seat Deposit: A non-refundable $1000 seat deposit is due at time of registration. The seat deposit will be applied to the program fee at the start of the course.

Program Fee: $2,500 (Covers Housing and Meals)
   The remaining $1,500 of the program fee (less the seat deposit) is due at the start of the course.

Tuition: Wyoming In-state tuition rate: $1,392 (for 3 credits)
   Wyoming Out-of-state tuition rate: $2,970 (for 3 credits)
   Tuition will be charged to your student account and will be due at the start of the course.

Travel: Travel is not included in the program and must be arranged by each individual student. Students will also be expected to acquire their passport and travel documents on their own.

Housing: Accommodations will be provided by the University of Cambridge, Hughes Hall and will include an accompanying meal plan in the cafeteria.

Course Title: European Trade and Human Rights Law
Prerequisites: None

Recommended Courses:

Course Overview: An intensive, two week, 3 credit course about European Trade and Human Rights Law. This year, the course will focus on the Brexit Crisis and its implications for criminal law and justice in the EU and UK. This course has two basic objectives: (1) to broaden the student’s knowledge of the EU, its institutions, and criminal law & policy; and (2) to examine the extent to which EU criminal law, and its core principles of mutual recognition and cooperation, will be affected by the adjustments to freedom of movement and goods caused by Brexit.

Course Materials: A binder containing reading materials on EU law and institutions, international commercial law, and criminal law and policy issues will be provided to students prior to the start of the course.

Course Format: Lectures by faculty members.

Other Comments: This course will not satisfy the advanced writing, experiential learning or skills requirements.

REGISTRATION: Registration for this course is a three step process:

Step 1: Register internally with the law school to establish interest. REGISTRATION LINK HERE The due date for this registration is the February 27th date previously stated. At this point in time, NO CHARGES are made whatsoever. If there are enough students registered, the course will go forth and each registrant will be notified to register in Step 2 through international programs. If there is not enough student interest, the class will be cancelled and the interested students will be notified.

Step 2: Register through the Cowboys Abroad Portal. REGISTRATION LINK HERE Students will receive an email on February 27th telling them to complete this registration if the course is a go. At this point, the $1,000 non-refundable seat deposit will be charged to your student account. The registration deadline for this portal is MARCH 1st. If you miss this deadline, you will absolutely not be able to travel on the course.

Step 3: Register for the course through WyoWeb. On March 1st, summer course registration opens. Register through your normal WyoWeb account to ensure that you are registered to receive 3 credits.

SCHOLARSHIPS: You are eligible to apply for the Dick and Lynne Cheney Study-Abroad Grants Faculty Directed Programs. This is a $600 scholarship, and requires a 3.0 GPA for eligibility and the application deadline is listed on the page.

TRAVEL ORIENTATION: The International Programs Office will set up a handful of dates throughout the remaining semester. We will set one up in the law school on a Friday afternoon. If you cannot attend that session, you’ll have to attend one of the other sessions on campus. This session will cover important travel information including insurance, passport and visa questions, waivers, medical issues and protocols in case of an emergency abroad. You are REQUIRED to attend.

Apologies for any confusion that the conflicting information may have caused. If you have any other questions, please do not hesitate to contact Christine Reed.

* Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. Civil Legal Services clinic enrollment is limited to 5 students, determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. New 3L students preferred followed by returning 3L students. If the registration is oversubscribed, additional students will be placed on a waitlist.

* Requires 3L standing, offered for a letter grade only. Defender Aid clinic enrollment is limited to 8 students; 7 determined on a first-come, first-served basis by registration. If the registration is oversubscribed additional students will be placed on a waitlist. Completion of, or concurrent enrollment in, Criminal Adjudication and/or Criminal Procedure strongly recommended.

This class officially starts August 5th with email reading assignments. The classroom portion of the course begins on Sunday, August 11th and runs through August 23rd. You must physically be here the 11th-23rd, so plan your summer schedules accordingly.

There is a mandatory seat deposit of $500 dollars for this course that you must submit to Christine before May 1st. If she does not receive your physical check by May 1st, you WILL BE DROPPED from the course. The check must be made out to the College of Law, and bring it to Christine in office 118. This deposit is to ensure your enrollment in the course. If you remain in the course, your deposit will be returned to you at the conclusion of the course. The only way the check is deposited and you are out the $500 is if you drop the course after May 1st. No exceptions!

Course Dates
This class officially starts August 5th with email reading assignments. The classroom portion of the course begins on Sunday, August 11th and runs through August 23rd. You must physically be here the 11th -23rd, so plan your summer schedules accordingly.

1. Registration for this course is on a first come, first served basis

You do not need to register for this course until March. The course is capped at 24 students, but we do keep a waitlist. We need to have exactly 24 students to make this course work (or a multiple of 4 if this course does not make it to the cap). It is very important that you make a firm commitment to this course. If for some reason you cannot take the course but you are registered, you need to drop the course immediately so you are not taking the opportunity away from a fellow student.

2. Mandatory Seat Deposit

There is a mandatory seat deposit of $500 dollars for this course that you must submit to Christine before May 1st. If she does not receive your physical check by May 1st, you WILL BE DROPPED from the course. The check must be made out to the College of Law, and bring it to Christine in office 118. The only way the check is deposited and you are out the $500 is if you drop the course after May 1st. No exceptions!

Optional Saturday Start

3. If you are not able to attend class on Sunday, August 11, we will hold special session of class on Saturday, August 10. [If you are able to attend class on Sunday, August 11, please do so. If you are here on Sunday, there is no need for you to be here on Saturday. The Saturday class is being offered only for those who are unable to attend on Sunday. If you plan to attend this optional start let Christine know.]

4. Tuition

Tuition is due at the start of the course (as stated above, August 5th). To be very clear, if you drop the course during the reading week, it will be considered a withdrawal and appear that way on your transcript and you will still be charged full tuition for the course, as well as lose the additional $500 seat deposit. This is a University policy. With the condensed course dates, there is no drop/add grace period for tuition.

5. Required Texts

The two books required will be:

Please have the Trial Techniques & Trials Book Read before the first day of class.

All that being said, I hope I have not scared any of you from taking the course. It is an absolutely fantastic, fun, and rigorous course. It is worth every minute and the face time with practicing members of the Wyoming Bar and surrounding states is unmatched. If you have any questions please reach out to Christine Reed.

Public Lands: Public Lands & Natural Resources Law course this upcoming May. This course will be a two (2) week intensive, three (3) credit field course running from Sunday, May 19 to Saturday, June 1, 2019. It will introduce students to the law of natural resources and public lands, with an emphasis on Federal statutes that govern access to and use of natural resources such as wildlife, biodiversity, wilderness and protected lands, water resources, and forests. This course will be taught in Jackson Hole, Wyoming, and the professors will be Jason J. Czarnezki (Elisabeth Haub School of Law at Pace University) and Sam Kalen (University of Wyoming), with guest lectures by professor Doug Wachob and other University of Wyoming faculty. We will also go on field trips and excursions using vehicles provided by the University of Wyoming. Students from Wyoming, Pace, and other law schools will be eligible to participate in the course. Students will be expected to arrange for their own travel to and from Jackson Hole. The only extra costs for the course will be for (a) housing; (b) University of Wyoming transportation, e.g., rental of vehicles; (c) and incidental instructional supplies, for a total extra cost (beyond just the tuition) of between $500 to $600 (right now, we think it will be $500, but it could—albeit not likely—go up to $600).
