

Cour
Pénale
Internationale

International Criminal
Court

Haydee Dijkstal

Haydee Dijkstal is a 2008 graduate of the University of Wyoming College of Law and a 2014 graduate of the George Washington University Law School with an LL.M. degree in international and comparative law. She currently lives in the Hague, Netherlands, where she focuses her practice on cases before international courts and tribunals. Most recently, she has represented victims before the International Criminal Court and had been part of the defense team in a number of high profile ICC cases.

Rodney Dixon QC

Rodney Dixon QC is a British barrister based in London who practices in the Temple Garden Chambers. He combines a practice at the national and international levels in public law, human rights and criminal law. His expertise is in international criminal and humanitarian law and public international law acting on behalf of Governments, political leaders, military officers, international organisations, NGOs and victims. His work spans over a wide range of international criminal courts to private international law cases.

The ICC: Prospects and Challenges

Thursday, January 22, 2015
7:00 PM

University of Wyoming College of Law
Room 182

Free and open to the public

Refreshments served*

1 Hour CLE credit

Application Pending*

Lunchtime Presentation: Careers in International Law

Friday, January 23, 2015
12:00 PM

University of Wyoming College of Law
Room 178

Free and open to the public

Light Lunch Provided*

*Sponsored by Wyoming Society for International Law (WSIL) with support from ASUW the Center for International Human Rights Law and Advocacy International Human Rights Clinic
University of Wyoming College of Law*

