Library Chairs

Just over a year ago the library purchased new chairs to be used at our public tables and at student carrels. All of these chairs have an extended warranty and are replaced upon presenting them to the vendor. If you encounter any chair that is not in working order, please bring it to the attention of a librarian so that we may apply for a replacement.

Library Guides

Do you need to research a legislative history? Find ethics opinions? Compare the Bluebook to the ALWD Guide? Our librarians have produced a number of guides and selected links to other useful information to help you through these questions. Visit our library guides web page at Your law librarians continue to expand the electronic resources available for the College of Law community. Visit <http://www.uwyo.edu/lawlib/databases/> and click on these new subscriptions.

- Animal Studies: Law, Welfare, and Rights consists of more than 650 titles and nearly 300,000 pages of material related to the background and evolution of the basic rights of animals. Explore on this module within HeinOnline.
- Also look for the ABA Law Library Collection within HeinOnline. This collection includes digital access to current volumes of all periodicals in ABA Law Library, covering all subject areas of American law.

- Global-Regulations provides fast and easy access to a rapidly growing searchable database of over 760,000 regulations from jurisdictions around the world. The company indexes laws from national law databases around the world, normalizes the data, and translates laws into English if necessary.
- The law library has been a long-time subscriber to Loislaw treatise titles. These e-books are now found within Fastcase, along with new subscriptions to e-books in the areas of remedies, family law, and law practice materials.
