Access to online legal content is continually expanding. Visit <http://www.uwyo.edu/lawlib/databases/> to click on these new resources.

- Are you a fan of streaming audio? If so, listen to Sum and Substance and Law School Legend study aids while commuting or while on the treadmill. These sets, which cover over 40 subjects, can be streamed from the West Academic Study Aids package.

- If you prefer to read your study aids online, check out the Understanding series, the Q & A titles, and additional e-books provided by LexisNexis Study Aids.
- Also, look for the Slavery in America and the World: History, Culture & Law module within HeinOnline. The collection “includes every statute passed by every colony and state on slavery, every federal statute dealing with slavery, and all reported state and federal cases on slavery” in the United States and in the English-speaking world.
- Finally, take some time to explore the latest Making of Modern Law module, American Civil Liberties Union Papers, 1912-1990. The collection includes correspondence, legal case files, clippings, reports, memoranda and other ACLU documents.
