

Book X.
Title LXXVIII.

Concerning the value of silver brought to the treasury.
(De argenti pretio quod thesauris infertur.)

10.78.1. Emperors Arcadius and Honorius to Eutychianus, Praetorian Prefect.

We order that every person who might be obligated to bring silver to the treasury may pay gold instead, at the ration of five gold pieces for each pound of silver.¹

C. Th. 13.2.1.

¹ [Blume] See note to C. 10.29.1.