

Book XII.
Title XIV.

Concerning the counts who govern provinces.
(De comitibus qui provincias regunt.)

12.14.1. Emperors Honorius and Theodosius to Priscianus, City Prefect.

Those who have held the reins of the civil government of a province, with the right to give judicial decisions, and (further) have received the (title) of count of the first order, shall, after relinquishing their office, enjoy the privileges of the rank of vicar.

Given at Constantinople March 21 (413).

C. Th. 6.17.1.