

Book XII.
Title VI.

Concerning quaestors, master of offices, counts of the Imperial Exchequer and of the Crown Domain.

(De quaestoribus magistris officiorum comitibus sacrarum largitionum et rei privatae.)

12.6.1. Emperors Gratian, Valentinian and Theodosius to Restutus, City Prefect.

Those who, thru the honor of quaestorship, the powerful office of master (of the offices) or the countship of either treasury, have lived in amazing splendor, must be received with the customary acclamation, and must not be passed by unknown.

Given at Thessalonica May 25.

C. Th. 6.9.2.

Note.

For more particulars as to these officials, see C. 1.30.32 and 33.