

Book V.
Title XL.

If all or one of several guardians or curators may sue or be sued on behalf of the minor.
(Si ex pluralibus tutoribus vel curatoribus omnes vel unus agree pro minors vel conveniri possunt.)

Bas. 37.7.66-67.

5.40.1. Emperor Antoninus to Miltiades.

You should not be unaware that a minor's cause may be defended by one guardian or curator when the others refuse to do so.

Promulgated November 5 (214).

5.40.2. Emperor Constantine and Caesar Licinius to Symnachus.

If the administration of a guardianship or curatorship in any province is separate from that in another, only the guardians or curators may sue or be sued in a particular province who officiate therein (as such), lest defenders of minors be summoned to court from other provinces.¹

Given February 4 (319).

C. Th. 2.4.1.1.

¹ [Blume] C. 5.38.2; C. 5.52.