

COMPETITION GUIDELINES 2018

November 15, 2017

Teachers,

Prepare your students for the World Languages Day Competitions in the following competition categories. All competition entries must explicitly address the WLD theme "Traditions" in level-appropriate language. Of students attending WLD from each school, at least 30% must be competing in the judged or art competition.

I. Judged Competition

- All performances must address this year's theme (Traditions). Each must have a beginning, middle, and end. The beginning must include the presenter's name, school, and presentation title.
- Students may enter the competition a maximum of two times: once as an individual performer and once in a group (either large or small).
- Live Presentations ONLY: Students may recite an existing work of cultural value. Students may also recite an original work of cultural value such as a poem, drama, song or a cultural presentation. The presentation must be entirely in the target language.
- Time Limit: Max. 5 minutes. Strictly Enforced!
- VIDEOS are NO LONGER ACCEPTED as a competition category
