

Thanks, merci, xiexie, danke schön, gracias, domo arigato, gratias, spasibo!

Be Proud! You Made it Happen! World Languages Day 2018

World Languages Day benefits Wyoming and the world. World language students share their skills and talents, get to know the University of Wyoming campus, learn from language and culture experts from around the world, and make lasting friendships with others throughout Wyoming.

348 people benefitted
by sharing their talents ...

261 visitors, including 174 student competitors with 66 works of art and 32 teachers representing 14 schools and 6 languages

32 UW Interns, 22 UW faculty, 33 UW student volunteers organizing, judging, guiding, or teaching through ...

5 rotating Friday night activities

(dance lessons, South American instruments, karaoke, trivia, a planetarium show)

and 10 language tables or workshops representing diverse languages:

Arapaho, Arabic, Chinese, French, German,
Hebrew, Japanese, Latin, Russian, Spanish

Expenses: $13,635

Donations: $8520; 2018 Volunteer Hours: 696

School Registration Payments: $5220

TOTAL Donations and School Payments: $13,740

97 slides in our online presentation at www.uwyo.edu/modlang/world-languages-day

Take a look and see how your donation benefitted so many.

Thank you for your help in preparing Wyoming students for a global tomorrow.

The Department of Modern and Classical Languages | Dept. 3603 | 1000 E. University Ave. | Laramie, WY 82071
www.uwyo.edu/modlang/world-languages-day | languages@uwyo.edu | 307-766-4177 | Facebook: UW World Languages Day (uwwld)