WELCOME TO THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING!

Approximately 2,500 full-time faculty and staff members at UW are dedicated to providing educational opportunities and the chance to make a difference to more than 13,000 students and many more thousands of residents across the state of Wyoming. This goal is reached through outstanding teaching, valuable research, strong outreach, educational and cultural programs, and economic development.

Institutional Communications, Division of University Public Relations, publishes the University Directory. Listings in this directory include benefited faculty and staff from Laramie and UW units across Wyoming, employees of cooperating agencies that have UW-Laramie campus locations, professors emeriti who have requested inclusion, and full-time students registered within the first seven days of fall registration.

Visit the University Directory online at http://directory.uwyo.edu. Students are not listed in the online directory.

Trustees

UW is governed by a bipartisan board of 12 trustees appointed by the governor with the consent of the Wyoming State Senate. Four members are appointed each biennium for six-year terms, with no two being residents of the same county. At least one member is appointed from each appointment district, and no more than seven may be registered in the same political party. Trustees make all major policy decisions and approve administrative and faculty appointments.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Information Technology Building
(307) 766-4860
www.uwyo.edu/infotech

The Division of Information Technology, located in the Information Technology Building, provides central computing, voice and data communications support for students, faculty, and staff. Information on products and services is available at www.uwyo.edu/infotech.

Telecommunications Services

- Assistance available for all voice and data services, including basic telephone service, long-distance programs, voice mail, caller I.D., off-campus DSL, and Blackberry services. Call the Help Desk at 766-HELP (766-4357) option 2 or e-mail teldesk@uwyo.edu.

Client Support Services

- Assistance for students, faculty, and staff in the effective use of the central computing and data communications facilities, office computers, computer and software questions, and consultations on special computing problems. Call the Help Desk at 766-HELP (766-4357) option 1 or e-mail userhelp@uwyo.edu.
- Training opportunities for faculty and staff on select software; current listings and fees at www.uwyo.edu/infotech/training.

Computer Sales and Maintenance

- Consultations on configurations and purchases of personal/desktop systems are available through our IT Sales and Maintenance group. We also provide on-site service and repair for PCs and Macintosh systems printers, and other computer peripherals. Contact us through the Help Desk (766-4357, option 1) or stop by the Information Technology Building. We are on the Web at www.uwyo.edu/infotech/services/sales

Central Computer Facilities

- Computing facilities for research, administrative, and academic purposes.
- Windows-domain student computer labs used for file storage, printing, running applications, and accessing associated peripheral equipment.
- Microsoft Exchange e-mail server available to all students, faculty, and staff.
- UNIX (Solaris) system for research and special projects.
- Campus-wide data communications network provides access to these computers from most campus buildings.
- Campus wireless network access in many buildings.
- Dial-up and DSL access available for many off campus users.
- Use of university computers and the data communications network governed by University Regulation 690 (www.uwyo.edu/legal/uniregs/ur690.htm).
- Academic Student Computer lab system policies at microlab.uwyo.edu/asu_policies.htm
Approval to Use Computers

Currently registered students, faculty, and staff will have accounts to use the central computing facilities and the academic computer labs in conjunction with assignments, classroom instruction, and employment-related activities. There are two different accounts available to students, faculty, and staff:

- UWYO account is based on Windows-domain architecture
- Frontier, a research and special project account, is based on UNIX (Solaris) operating system.

Wireless Availability

A current list of the many wireless access locations across campus is located at www.uwyo.edu/InfoTech/wireless/map.htm. Students may contact the IT/Academic Support Unit, (307) 766-HELP (4357) option 1, for assistance in setting up and using wireless connections.

Off-Campus Network Access

- Dial-up access to the UW network and the Internet available at (307) 742-1200 for students or (307) 721-0400 for faculty and staff.
- Information on establishing a dial-up connection can be found at any of the student computer labs and can also be viewed and printed online at www.uwyo.edu/askit/howto.
- DSL service offered for qualified UW students, faculty, and staff.
- DSL information: contact Business Services at (307) 766-HELP (4357) option 2 or at www.uwyo.edu/infotech.

Academic Computer Labs

- Located throughout campus, labs are available to students, faculty, and staff. A complete list can be found at microlab.uwyo.edu/alllabs.asp.
- Staffed by student lab assistants (during open hours) who are able to help with questions.
- Equipped with desktop computers and a variety of software for academic use.
- Each lab computer is connected to all campus computing resources and the Internet.
- Scheduled hours for each of these labs are posted at the entrance to each lab and can also be viewed and printed online at microlab.uwyo.edu/Labs/schedule.htm.
- Complete list of available software at microlab.uwyo.edu/Labs/software.asp.

Academic Support Unit

- Assists students with academic computing problems.
- Maintains hardware and software for student computer labs.
- Offers free short courses to teach students how to use some of the campus software. For course information or to sign up for a course: microlab.uwyo.edu/asucourses.

Open Labs

- Numerous computing labs are available to all students and are staffed with student lab assistants. Specific lab locations and schedules are available online at microlab.uwyo.edu/Labs/schedule.htm.
- Remote access to lab computers and software is available here: microlab.uwyo.edu/uwremote.

Hours

- Central UW computers operate 24 hours a day and are available for general use with the exception of system maintenance time, which is midnight–6 a.m. Sun. mornings.
- Fall and spring semesters: 37 Biological Sciences Building, open 24 hours a day; closing only for holidays and system maintenance.
- Information Technology Division offices are located in the Information Technology Building and are open during university business hours.
- Contact the responsible college or department for information about individual college and department lab hours.

Free Software Available to Students

- Trend Micro’s Internet Security, a complete Internet security solution for UW students, is available for use on their personal computers for free.
- Individuals with an Internet connection should go to the www.uwyo.edu/InfoTech/antivirus/ website and follow the appropriate link to retrieve access codes, get installation instructions, download the software, and find help from Trend Micro.
- Free or discounted Microsoft Office Suite (Windows and Macintosh) and Windows operating systems are available for download or order from distribution partners on the Web at uwyo.edu/SOFTWARE/students.
UW POSTAL SERVICES

McWhinnie Hall, (307) 766-4297, (307) 766-6789
www.uwyo.edu/uwmailroom

- Federal (stamped/metered) mail and intracampus mail processed daily.
- Campus mail delivered to university units, not residential units.
- No postage required for official UW departmental mail; personal mail, such as greeting cards, are not accepted through campus mail.
- Campus mail requires name of individual, department name, and building location.
- Address campus mail as illustrated:
  Jane Doe
  Research
  308 Old Main
  Campus
- Private mail requires postage; handled by the U.S. Postal Service.
- Digital addressing and free mail list cleansing.

Due to Private Express Statutes (PES), campus mail is used for official UW departments only. No outside business can use campus mail for delivery. The PES are a group of federal, civil and criminal laws that make it generally unlawful for any entity other than the U.S. Postal Service to send or carry letters over postal routes for compensation unless appropriate postage has been paid that equals what would have been paid had the letters been sent through the U.S. Postal Service.

Note: Zip code 82071 is for UW administrative offices only. The city zip code of 82070 applies to residence halls and Spanish Walk Apartments. The 82072 zip code is used for fraternities, sororities and University Apartments. Do not use zip code for intracampus mail.

U.S. Mail

- Mail sent to a UW address from an off-campus location requires the use of a UW department number (as illustrated):
  Jane Doe
  Office of Research
  Dept. 3355
  1000 E. University Avenue
  Laramie, WY 82071-2000

Note: Department numbers are for official use only. All change-of-address forms must direct mail to a private address or a private box number (you may rent a P.O. box from the U.S. Postal Service). Do not use the University of Wyoming as your private address. For further information, log on to the UW Postal Services Web site for rates, fees, regulations, and classifications.

STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE

Student Health Building
(307) 766-2130, TTY (307) 766-2132
www.uwyo.edu/SHSer

- Medical clinicians are seen by appointment; schedule in advance for a convenient time.
- Urgent medical cases are evaluated the same day.

Hours:

- Academic year: 8 a.m.–5 p.m. Mon.–Wed. and Fri.; 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Thurs.
- Summer: 7:30 a.m.–noon and 1–4:30 p.m. Mon.–Fri.
- Spring break and Christmas holiday: 8 a.m.–noon and 1–5 p.m. Mon.–Fri.
- Closed 8-9 a.m. every Thurs. during the academic semester.
- When Student Health Service is closed (evenings, week ends, and holidays), students with medical emergencies should report to Ivinson Memorial Hospital Emergency Room, 255 N. 30th St., (307) 742-2141, ext. 222. All expenses incurred as a result of a visit to the emergency room are the responsibility of the student.
- After hours, the Student Health Service Nurse Advice Line can be reached by calling 766-2130.

Students eligible to use Student Health Service include:

- Full-time undergraduate and graduate students who have paid the mandatory fee.
- Part-time undergraduate and graduate students who have purchased the Optional Student Fee Package.

Students enrolled for one-half credit hour or more during the summer pay a summer fee for Student Health Service. Students not attending summer session but enrolled the previous spring semester and preregistered for fall may pay the same summer fee for eligibility during the summer.

Note: Students not eligible for care will receive first aid and referral for appropriate medical care.

- Clinical staff members include: four board-certified primary care physicians, a board-certified nurse practitioner and physician assistant, consultant orthopedist and psychiatrist, nursing staff, radiologic technologist, pharmacist, and health educator.
- There is no charge for an appointment to see a member of the medical staff. Services requiring a charge include: specialty clinics, medications, laboratory, X-ray, allergy immunotherapy, immunizations, medical supplies, and medical/surgical procedures.
- There is a $25 no-show fee if an appointment is not kept or cancelled at least 24 hours prior to the appointment. The $25 will be charged to the student’s account.
