ABOUT UW
The University of Wyoming was established as the state’s Morrill Act land-grant university in 1886 and serves as Wyoming’s only public university. UW had a fall 2018 enrollment of 12,450 students from all 50 states and 88 countries around the world. Students can choose from 195 majors, including 22 certificate programs, 81 bachelor’s programs, 56 master’s programs, and 36 doctorate/professional programs. The University of Wyoming also offers courses at various off-campus sites as well as offering programs online.

UNIVERSITY AUTHORIZATION AND ACCREDITATION
A public land-grant university, the University of Wyoming was founded in 1886, authorized by the Wyoming Territorial legislature, and is governed by the University of Wyoming Board of Trustees. The University of Wyoming is institutionally accredited through the Higher Learning Commission. Additionally, four colleges hold specialty accreditation: Business, Education, Engineering & Applied Science, and Law; 22 programs also hold specialty accreditation. UW’s Student Health, Family Practice Centers in Cheyenne and Casper, Veterinary Lab, and Art Museum are also accredited.

ATHLETICS
The UW Cowboys and Cowgirls compete at the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division 1 level in 17 sports, including the Football Bowl Subdivision. Cowboys and Cowgirl teams are a part of the Mountain West Conference.

COMMUNITY AT A GLANCE
Nestled between mountain ranges in southeast Wyoming and sitting at an altitude of 7,200 feet, Laramie is home to 32,382 residents. The town is just 50 miles west of the state capital of Cheyenne and 150 miles north of Denver, Colorado. Laramie boasts 2.9 million acres of nearby national forests, more than 100 miles of mountain bike trails, and plentiful opportunities for hiking, fishing, skiing, and camping.

RESEARCH
Fueling research, scholarship, innovation, and economic development.

University of Wyoming ranking by National Science Foundation has improved from 190th place in 2011 to 144th in 2016.

In FY17, UW’s research enterprise generated over $54 million in grants from federal agencies like National Science Foundation, Department of Energy, and U.S. Department of Health and Human services.

Over 800 undergraduate students are involved in research annually at the University of Wyoming, and an Undergraduate Research Day is hosted each year to highlight their research.

Wyoming’s Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR) is a program funded by the National Science Foundation (NSF) to support researchers, students, and institutions in Wyoming by building a robust and diverse research educational infrastructure in the state by supporting and facilitating programs.

The University of Wyoming is one of 22 institutions funded by the National Institutes for Health IDeA Networks for Biomedical Research Excellence (INBRE) Program. Since 2004, INBRE-related projects have generated more than

*$Not audited.
$40 million of direct revenues to the University of Wyoming and other community colleges across the state of Wyoming. Due to the multiplier effect, these $40+ million of direct expenditures have led to over $68 million of total economic output, $25 million of earnings, $41 million of value added, and have created 895 new jobs in Wyoming. In addition, INBRE-related projects from UW faculty have supported several hundred undergraduate students, graduate students, and postdoc fellows.

INNOVATION

UW’s new Institute of Innovation and Entrepreneurship, launched in 2018, is poised to support inventors, innovators, and entrepreneurs from the campus to the broader community from project idea to successful commercialization. Working with stakeholders, this university-wide entity will create an educated workforce, generate new technologies and know-how, and help drive the creation of new businesses and industries.

Over 900 total UW/co-owned patent applications filed, 208 UW patents issued, and over 1,500 UW IP agreements signed through the Wyoming Technology Transfer and Research Products Center.

Eight spinoff companies initiated in 2017 and 42 created overall. Companies include Bright-AgroTech, the world’s leading company in vertical hydroponic plant growth systems (recently acquired by Silicon Valley Company, Plenty United) and Firehole Technologies, now part of Auto Desk, a Fortune 300 company.
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Sponsored Programs to provide resources for networking, consulting, and entrepreneurial training.

Manufacturing-Works provides assistance to manufacturing businesses throughout the state, helping them to cut costs, and enhance productivity.

Wyoming Small Business Development Center network provides consulting, training, and resources to businesses throughout Wyoming to help them become more successful and sustainable.

The Wyoming SBIR/STTR Initiative (WSSI) assists all qualified Wyoming small businesses and individuals to access the funding opportunities provided by the federal Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Programs.

The Wyoming Technology Business Center, a not-for-profit business incubator, provides entrepreneurs with the expertise, networks, and tools needed to make their ventures successful. Ten innovative businesses formed by UW graduate students are finalists that will compete for $125,000 in seed funding to grow their businesses.
MEDICAL EDUCATION

WWAMI – Four-year medical program affiliated with the University of Washington – School of Medicine. It includes participation from Washington, Wyoming, Alaska, Montana, and Idaho.

Since the inception in 1997, 91 Wyoming-WWAMI graduates have completed their residency and returned to Wyoming to practice medicine as of August 2017.

WY-DENT is a contract program with the Schools of Dentistry at the University of Nebraska and Creighton University.

BRAND is the Accelerated Nursing Degree program for students with a previous non-nursing baccalaureate degree who desire to become a registered nurse.

The UW Medical Education includes the University of Wyoming Family Medicine Residency Program, with family medicine residency clinics in Casper and Cheyenne. The third addition to the University’s Federally Qualified Health Center, the Albany Community Health Clinic, has been seeing patients since May 2017.
STATEWIDE ACTIVITIES

The University of Wyoming’s Top-Tier Science Initiative is training Wyoming’s K-12 teachers and community college faculty in the best instructional practices for 21st century STEM education. Statewide workshops and in-school visits equip STEM teachers to prepare students for careers in technical disciplines of regional and national need.

The Pathways from Prison Program was established in 2016 as a collaboration between UW and the Wyoming Department of Corrections to provide high-quality college courses to incarcerated men and women throughout Wyoming’s five correctional facilities. This no cost program is taught by volunteer faculty, staff, and supervised students who teach courses in their areas of specialization.

The Collaboration Program in Natural Resources of the Ruckelshaus Institute brings natural resource decision-makers and engaged citizens—including ranchers, conservationists, industry, and many others—together to learn to apply collaborative processes to address complex natural resource challenges. Graduates go on to lead collaborative problem-solving processes throughout Wyoming and the West.

In May 2018, UW Theatre and Dance Department students visited ten communities performing Six Songs from Ellis, an original faculty work that captures the voices of immigrants who passed through Ellis Island. In addition to the performances, the artists led 29 workshops reaching a total of 2,226 Wyoming students and residents.
The College of Law provides its students with hands-on educational opportunities in its seven legal clinics in fields ranging from civil and criminal services to natural resources law. Across a two-year period, law students provided legal aid to 478 Wyoming citizens from all 23 counties.

The Wyoming Institute for Disabilities provides necessary services to Wyoming residents. With the help of the Wyoming Assistive Technology Resources Program, WIND provides support to residents with disabilities and their families; plus, financial assistance is provided to those who cannot afford or gain access to these devices.

UW hosts a number of events that bring Wyoming K-12 students to campus. Among the many opportunities in 2018, the second Native American Summer Institute brought Native American students from ten high schools to Laramie to explore career opportunities and experience campus life.

Annually UW hosts dozens of free public programs around the state, such as the World to Wyoming Program with National Geographic writer and UW writer-in-residence Mark Jenkins, that share knowledge, expertise, and adventure with Wyoming citizens.

Established in 1986, the Wyoming School-University Partnership between school districts, community colleges, UW, and state education organizations work together to improve teacher education and renew public schooling. The partnership annually hosts meetings among key constituents to facilitate the transition from high school to community college or university.

BREAKING THROUGH: 2017-2022
A STRATEGIC PLAN FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

At the “gateway” to the University of Wyoming, a woman rider breaking through a sandstone wall welcomes all to campus. “Breakin’ Through” captures the spirit of Wyoming and its university: Our students break through to the future for the Cowboy State and the Equality State. To this flagship and land-grant university, student opportunity is everything. Indeed, the University of Wyoming is poised to break through once again.

VISION

As the Equality State’s university, we strive to break through barriers and explore new frontiers of teaching and learning. Through the unfettered pursuit of knowledge, we aim to apply innovation, intelligence and tenacity to meet the economic, social, and environmental challenges of today, and to create a sustainable, diverse and equitable world without borders for tomorrow.
GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Goal 1: Driving Excellence
Join together as an intellectual community already renowned for its regional, national, and global relevance and impact by fostering and rewarding excellence in teaching, scholarship, innovation, and creative endeavor.

Goal 2: Inspiring Students
Inspire students to pursue a productive, engaged, and fulfilling life and prepare them to succeed in a sustainable global economy.

Goal 3: Impacting Communities
Improve and enhance the health and well-being of our communities and environments through outreach programs and in collaboration with our constituents and partners.

Goal 4: A High-Performing University
Assure the long-term strength and stability of the university by preserving, caring for and developing human, intellectual, financial, structural, and marketing resources.

ANNUAL REPORT, YEAR ONE IS AVAILABLE AT: uwyo.edu/strategic-plan
