Summer Updates

New Student Orientation
The Office of Multicultural Affairs is excited to welcome all our incoming students to the University this fall! We look forward to having in-person events and creating welcoming spaces for friendship, support, educational opportunities, and celebrations.

Find Us
Multicultural Affairs spaces can be found in the Wyoming Union and in the Native American Education, Research and Cultural Center (NAERCC). In the Union you'll find the Rainbow Resource Center in room 106, and the Multicultural Resource Center in room 103. The Veterans Services Center can be found on the third floor in the Union. Finally, the Native Center (pictured below) is located at 200 S 10th St on Ivinson just across the street from Old Main.

Connections
The 2020-2021 academic year was challenging in many ways, but Multicultural Affairs connected with our student communities throughout the year. Events included:
Weekly Student Circles, which provided a safe space for students to meet virtually.

Our Speaker Series with guest speakers such as Yosimar Reyes, Alok Vaid-Menon, and Alex Myers.

A week of events celebrating Native American Heritage Month with guest speakers and an exhibit at the UW Art Museum.

Martin Luther King, Jr. Days of Dialogue with the theme "Black Lives Matter: Strides Toward Freedom & Justice."

The 2021 Shepard Symposium featuring events centered on the theme "Healing Communities."

The 2021 National Day of Awareness for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls featuring a virtual panel discussion.

As we head into Fall 2021, check our website for information on upcoming events, or follow CSIL on Facebook and Instagram for updates.
