

WYOMING STOIC CAMP

2018

The goal of Stoic Camp is to experiment with living in a thoroughly philosophical way, using the stoics as a model, to explore what it means to live intentionally.

Wyoming Stoic Camp, hosted by the University of Wyoming Department of Philosophy, activities include:

- * Meditative and journaling exercises
(inspired by ancient stoic teachings and practices)
- * Discussions with invited guest speakers on stoicism and similarly related topics
- * Engaging in rigorous study of stoic texts and related sources

In addition to the more serious study, participants will also have the opportunity to engage in outdoor activities, including but not limited to, hiking, bonfires, and waking up to watch the sunrise on the final morning, as a direct response to one of Marcus Aurelius' suggested meditations. The beautiful location of Centennial, WY, allows for a perfect opportunity to live as a stoic, in agreement with nature.
