

TRAVEL TO INDIA IN THE SUMMER OF 2012

The Religious Studies Program at the University of Wyoming is offering a two-week summer study abroad course in 2012 on Religion and Globalization in India.

Travel abroad to India this summer. This two-week course familiarizes students with India's religions and their religious practices and institutions. It also explores the impact globalization has had on the general state and role of religion in South Asia. Students will travel to different religious and cultural sites within local villages as well as global cities in the regions of North India, including Agra, Rajasthan, and Delhi. Open to UW students at any level, UW faculty and staff, and the general public.

Course travel dates: June 4-June 18 (dates may change slightly)

Course title: Religion and Globalization in India (RELI 3350)

Pre-Requisites: RELI 1000 or 2050, or Permission of Instructor

Total Cost: $3,700 (inclusive of airfare, accommodation, meals, National Park and other fees, and local transportation).

Information Sessions:

October, 4th, 3-4 p.m., Ross Hall 134

October 25th, 3-4 p.m., Ross 134

To enroll in the course, contact:

Antoinette DeNapoli, Ph.D.
Religious Studies Program
Ross Hall, room 138
Email: adenapol@uwyo.edu

Funding Opportunities are available. Please speak with the Instructor for more information.