

Registration is free

To RSVP or for more information please contact:

Wyoming Business Council

Donn Randall

307.777.6578

donn.randall@wyo.gov

Fremont County Extension

Ronald D. Cunningham

307.332.2363

ronc@uwyo.edu

University of Wyoming

Dr. Anowar Islam

307.766.4151

mislam@uwyo.edu

WYOMING FORAGE FIELD DAY

June 28, 2012
Mile High Ranch
36 Mile High Road
Riverton, Wyoming 82501

Local Machinery Dealership Equipment and Product Line Demonstrations

- Brown Company
Demonstrating sickle and disc swathers, Trimble/CNH guidance display, NH square baler - CNH Capital and New Holland representatives
- Greenline equipment
Demonstrating John Deere Windrower, Pull Type Mower Conditioner, 568 Round Baler, V-Rakes, & Krone Big Baler
- Conditioning, Curing, Preserving Hay Techniques

*Will be addressed by both companies

Marketing Opportunities

(Wyoming Business Council, Agribusiness Division) – Donn Randall

- Hay marketing strategies
- New potential Wyoming hay markets
- Yield vs. quality decisions to maximize your forage income

Forage Production and Management (Dr Anowar Islam, University of Wyoming)

- In-depth soil analysis, interpretation and recommendation
- Forage variety selection
— Factors to be considered for persistence, high yield and quality
- Forage management practices
- Irrigation Practices
— flood vs. sprinkler systems
— cost analysis and economics

Fertigation and Test Plots (Wyoming Ag Marketing)

- Fertigation systems
- Products and services etc.
- Field demonstrations and test plot tours
- Additional marketing topics

Tentative Program Agenda:

8:30 a.m. Mile High Ranch	Registration Welcome Introductions and Program Overview
9:30 a.m. — noon	Field Tours Test Plots Equipment Demonstrations
Noon — 1 p.m.	Barbecue
1 — 1:40 p.m.	Forage Establishment & Management Practices (Dr. Anowar Islam, UW)
1:40 — 2:25 p.m.	Forage Variety Selection (Dr. Anowar Islam, UW) • Factors to be considered for persistence, high yield and quality
2:30 — 3:10 p.m.	In-depth soil analysis, interpretation & recommendation (Dr. Kelli Belden, UW)
3:10 — 3:25 p.m.	BREAK
3:25 — 4:10 p.m.	Soil Fertility Management (Dr. Joe Brummer, CSU)
4:15 — 4:55 p.m.	Irrigation Practices (Mr. Caleb Carer, Dr. Axel Garcia, and Dr. Anowar Islam, UW) • Flood vs. sprinkler systems • Cost analysis and economics
5 p.m.	Door prize drawings

