Congressional Internships

Internships in the office of Senator John Barrasso

The history of Congressional internships runs deep on Capitol Hill, and the program is an integral part of Senator Barrasso's office. An internship in Senator Barrasso's office provides an excellent opportunity to learn, observe, and work in government service. Interns will participate in a wide array of activities ranging from constituent relations to legislative research. Students can expect to be provided with the chance to gain experience and knowledge that may be readily applied to future challenges and professional pursuits. Expectations of interns are high, but candidates will be given the chance to make a genuine contribution to Senator Barrasso's efforts on behalf of the state of Wyoming and the nation.

Senator Barrasso welcomes all applicants who demonstrate academic excellence and commitment to public service. While preference is given to Wyoming residents, students from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Applicants are generally 21 years of age or older.

Program Locations

Offering the opportunity for a well-rounded experience, internships are available in Washington, D.C. and select Wyoming offices. For students interested in an internship in the Washington, D.C. office, they can expect to be exposed to a wide range of professional experiences within the office where Senator Barrasso works on behalf of Wyoming on Capitol Hill. They will also be exposed to the rich culture and history of living and working in our nation's capital.

Students applying for in-state internships will be given the opportunity to learn and experience a very critical part of the Senator Barrasso's work, which is constituent outreach and service. This unique opportunity offers students the chance to gain work experience for the federal government while remaining in and enjoying our great state.

While participating in both internship programs, students are encouraged to enjoy the many activities and events their program locations have to offer, as the possibilities are endless.

Funding, Housing & Academic Credit

Each intern is given a monthly stipend to help with living expenses.

Interns are responsible for securing their own housing in their program location.

Arrangements for accreditation and academic credit as well as credit payment are the responsibility of the applicant and should be made prior to the internship start date. Awarding of academic credit is at the discretion of your educational institution. However, the office of Senator Barrasso will assist you in providing appropriate information as requested by your school.

Session Dates & Deadlines

The internship program consists of two four-month sessions in the spring and fall, and one three month session in the summer.

Spring 2009:	January 12th — May 15th, Application Deadline: November 21, 2008
Summer 2009:	May 18th—August 14th, Application Deadline: March 27, 2009
Fall 2009:	August 24th—December 18th, Application Deadline: July 10, 2009
