

PRESIDENTIAL DIRECTIVE
THE UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING
3-1979-2

Revised May 28, 2015

SUBJECT: Copyright Licensing Agreements

1. General Information. The University of Wyoming has entered into copyright licensing agreements with the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) and Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI). These agreements provide a blanket music license to the University that allows the University to perform various non-dramatic musical works without having to seek permission from each individual copyright holder.
2. Purpose. To outline the responsibilities and fees associated with the University's copyright licensing agreements with ASCAP and BMI.
3. Responsibility. The following responsibilities apply to the agreements with ASCAP and BMI:
 - a. The University Office of Fiscal Administration is responsible for the payment of the basic license agreement fees. The University department or unit using the musical work is responsible for any additional fees.
 - b. Copies of the licensing agreements are available in the University Office of Fiscal Administration.
