This event is also the perfect time to talk with Anthony about any issues you might have regarding roommates or your apartment.
The UW Apartments Community Center is now a Food Share Cabinet Location

Located across campus, food share cabinets are a student-led effort to address food insecurity. The formation of the task force was inspired by this student-led approach!

The University of Wyoming Apartments is proud to announce that our Community Center now has a Food Share Cabinet for sharing healthy, nutritious food with our community.

UW Apartment Community members are encouraged to donate. Please contribute high quality, healthy food to our Cabinet using the following guidelines:

- Factory-sealed, non-perishable foods (e.g., canned goods, pasta, granola bars, flours, dried fruit, nuts, grains, cereal, shelf-stable milk, tea)

- Shelf-stable produce (e.g., apples, bananas, winter squash, onions, citrus, fruit)

- Sealed toiletries and personal items

Please Note: The cabinet CANNOT accept any perishable goods that require refrigeration, prepared foods, or foods with opened packaging.
