Announcements

1. Join us tomorrow (Thursday) at 12:20pm in the RRC for a Town Hall Meeting! Come discuss evaluations, voice your opinion, and let us know your vision for the center! Panda Express will be provided!

2. Do you know of a GLBTQIA student who is graduating from UW this May? If so, would you please contact Dr. Cardona at cardona@uwyo.edu or 307-766-6228 with their contact information? We’d like to know how many students we could honor as part of the Multicultural Graduation Celebration or a Lavender Graduation event. Please let us know soon!

3. Join us every Friday for Donuts for Diversity! Stop by the RRC, socialize a bit, and have a donut. The Nontraditional & Women’s Center will also have coffee if you need a cup. We’d love to have you stop by.

4. The GLBTQ Support Group meets in room 002 of the Union on Monday nights at 5:30. This is a safe environment for GLBTQ individuals to talk and find support. It’s sponsored by the counseling education department.

5. The Office of Women’s Programs and Studies at Colorado State University is hiring a Program Coordinator. The Program Coordinator in the Office of Women’s Programs and Studies (WPS) is a full-time, 12-month position reporting to the Director. The Coordinator shares in providing leadership for the mission of WPS through the development, administration, and evaluation of programs and services. WPS provides services and programs with women or gender as a focus for the CSU campus. Programs concentrate on examining the intersections of oppression and creating conditions that allow for all people to share safely and equally in the opportunities and resources provided by CSU. These support services are designed to reflect and enhance the unique goals, expectations, and aspirations of the students. Programs and services also assist students in addressing contemporary issues confronting them.

A complete job description with application procedures is available at http://wps.colostate.edu/Data/Sites/1/programcoordinatorsp10(2).pdf.
6. 30th Annual Women and Theatre Program (WTP) Conference Association for Theatre in Higher Education (ATHE) is August 2, 2010 – Los Angeles, CA
   University of California
   - The Women and Theatre Program is a self-incorporated division of the Association for Theatre in Higher Education (ATHE). Founded in 1974, our mission is to bring theater professionals together with academics and activists.
   - This year we are interrogating the influences of theatre and media on feminist and queer communities, performance, collaborations, and other related issues. The WTP wishes to use the 2010 conference as a moment to explore ways to include those who have been excluded from political processes, to examine the impacts of theatre and media on feminist and queer communities, to build and explore collaborations among marginalized groups.
   - Submissions for the WTP conference should be emailed to Cecilia (Cici) Aragon at ccaragon@uwyo.edu by March 31, 2010. In addition, feel free to contact Cici with any questions or concerns about the submission process. Further information on WTP, its membership and events (as well as how to join the WTP listserv) can be accessed at http://www.athe.org/wtp/

7. PLAG- Parents Friends and Family of Lesbians and Gays of Casper will be picking up litter near Marion Kleiner Park in North Casper. Participants should meet at the corner of “K” and Kimball Streets starting at 10 A.M. on Saturday, May 1st.

8. McAlister's Deli will be donating 5% of their profit to the Children's Miracle Network which is the national platform for the Miss America Organization. The Children's Miracle Network (CMN) is an international non-profit organization that raises funds for Children's hospitals, medical research and community awareness of children's health issues. Please consider coming to dinner to support this cause and it would be a HUGE help if you could spread the word and bring friends as well!

9. The Summer Venture in Management Program (SVMP) hosted by Harvard Business School http://www.hbs.edu/mba/svmp/ is a week of HBS instruction (June 19-25, 2010) that exposes high-potential college students in the summer between their junior and senior year to the HBS MBA experience and the variety of opportunities a degree in management can afford. Consistent with the objective of promoting educational diversity and opportunity in business leadership, additional criteria to be considered among others, are whether the applicant is:
   - the first family member to attend college;
• a member of a group that is currently underrepresented in business schools and corporate America (e.g. African-American, Latino, Native American, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, or Transgender);
• from a family with little business education or experience; and/or
• from a school whose graduates do not typically attend a top-tier university (e.g., attends a rural or predominantly minority college, or has attended a community college as part of a four-year degree).

The SVMP Application is now available online. The deadline is May 17, 2010. To apply, and for more information about this program, please visit the SVMP website: http://www.hbs.edu/mba/svmp/.
