Announcements

Just a reminder…

1. Donuts for Diversity started up again on Friday, January 22\textsuperscript{nd} from 8-11am. Donuts and conversation are free! Why not stop by?

2. Are you part of a GLBTQ or allied family? Are you home sick for that family atmosphere? If so, become a part of the RRC family and join us for Family Night on Thursday, January 28 from 6:30pm-8:30pm in the RRC. Family Night is a time for people to converse and interact through quality conversation and different activities such as watching movies, having game night and whatever else anyone wants to do. Soda and popcorn will be provided. The RRC is a safe, nonjudgmental place. Everyone is welcome. Hope to see you there!

3. We have made significant aesthetic changes to our center and are inviting students, faculty and staff to join us for an open house from 8-11am on January 29\textsuperscript{th} to celebrate the new beginnings of the RRC. Refreshments will be provided. Everyone is welcome!

4. We will be hosting FREE HIV testing in the RRC every 4\textsuperscript{th} Thursday of the month. The first one will start on January 28\textsuperscript{th} from 11am-1pm. Come by and get tested! All results are confidential and counseling can be provided.

5. Have you ever considered getting involved with ASUW? Do you care about UW and want to make a difference on your campus? If so, these workshops are for you.

   ASUW and Student Leadership and Civic Engagement (SLCE) are offering 6 workshops this spring to help UW students learn more about ASUW and how to run in the upcoming election. The workshops are offered at 4-5 p.m. on Mondays starting January 25\textsuperscript{th}.

6. Don't forget to register for the 2nd Annual OUT for Work Regional West Coast LGBTQA College Student Career Conference!
OUT for Work is the only nonprofit dedicated to educating, preparing, and empowering Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Questioning, and Ally college students for the transition from academia to the workplace.

We will be returning to the West Coast this spring at the University of California, Los Angeles on April 10-11, 2010. At the Conference, you can expect to hear representatives from America's top organizations share their coming out at work stories and how the decision to be out and open has impacted their careers. There will also be presentations from well-known speakers, including transgender advocate Donna Rose, and skill building workshops focusing on networking, resume writing, and interviewing techniques. The event will culminate with the PRIDE Career Fair, where you can find internship and job opportunities with employers leading the way for LGBT workplace equality.

LGBTQ undergraduate students, graduate students, recent graduates, college professors and administrators, friends, family, and allies are all encouraged to attend! Registration is now open! The cost for the event is $35 per student, $75 for professionals, and $250 for a group of 10. Register soon because after March 20th, the rates will rise. To register, simply go to: http://outforwork.org/conferences/2010/westcoast/default.asp

Attached is a flyer for the Conference for distribution at your school. If you have any questions or want more information about ways to get involved with OUT for Work, please contact Alex Gant, Program Coordinator by email to alex@outforwork.com.
