Announcements

1. Join us every Friday for Donuts for Diversity! Stop by the RRC, socialize a bit, and have a donut. The Nontraditional & Women’s Center will also have coffee if you need a cup. We’d love to have you stop by.

2. The Office of Women’s Programs and Studies at Colorado State University is hiring a Program Coordinator. The Program Coordinator in the Office of Women’s Programs and Studies (WPS) is a full-time, 12-month position reporting to the Director. The Coordinator shares in providing leadership for the mission of WPS through the development, administration, and evaluation of programs and services. WPS provides services and programs with women or gender as a focus for the CSU campus. Programs concentrate on examining the intersections of oppression and creating conditions that allow for all people to share safely and equally in the opportunities and resources provided by CSU. These support services are designed to reflect and enhance the unique goals, expectations, and aspirations of the students. Programs and services also assist students in addressing contemporary issues confronting them.

A complete job description with application procedures is available at http://wps.colostate.edu/Data/Sites/1/programcoordinatorsp10(2).pdf.

3. 30th Annual Women and Theatre Program (WTP) Conference Association for Theatre in Higher Education (ATHE) is August 2, 2010 – Los Angeles, CA

University of California

- The Women and Theatre Program is a self-incorporated division of the Association for Theatre in Higher Education (ATHE). Founded in 1974, our mission is to bring theater professionals together with academics and activists.
- This year we are interrogating the influences of theatre and media on feminist and queer communities, performance, collaborations, and other related issues. The WTP wishes to use the 2010 conference as a moment to explore ways to include those who have been excluded from political processes, to examine the impacts of theatre and media on feminist and queer communities, to build and explore collaborations among marginalized groups.
- Submissions for the WTP conference should be emailed to Cecilia (Cici) Aragon at ccaragon@uwyo.edu by March 31, 2010. In addition, feel free to contact Cici with any questions or concerns about the submission process. Further information on WTP, its membership and events (as well as how to join the WTP listserv) can be accessed at http://www.athe.org/wtp/

4. EVERY FRIDAY EVENING, at 7 P.M. – UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST – 15th and Melrose Streets, Casper. More LGBTQ people have died from alcoholism and drug addiction than AIDS, but you and your loved ones don’t have to. We have started a 12-Step Recovery group in Casper for LGTBQ people and their friends and families. Please join us. Info: call Rob at 307-259-5026.

5. The Summer Venture in Management Program (SVMP) hosted by Harvard Business School [http://www.hbs.edu/mba/svmp/] is a week of HBS instruction (June 19-25, 2010) that exposes high-potential college students in the summer between their junior and senior year to the HBS MBA experience and the variety of opportunities a degree in management can afford. Consistent with the objective of promoting educational diversity and opportunity in business leadership, additional criteria to be considered among others, are whether the applicant is:
• the first family member to attend college;
• a member of a group that is currently underrepresented in business schools and corporate America (e.g. African-American, Latino, Native American, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, or Transgender);
• from a family with little business education or experience; and/or
• from a school whose graduates do not typically attend a top-tier university (e.g., attends a rural or predominantly minority college, or has attended a community college as part of a four-year degree).

The SVMP Application is now available online. The deadline is May 17, 2010. To apply, and for more information about this program, please visit the SVMP website: http://www.hbs.edu/mba/svmp/.

8. Fall 2010
GRAD 5910: Teaching Methodologies & Applications (Course in College Teaching)
Instructor: Joe Stepans

GRAD 5910, a three credit S/U course, provides graduate students with a broad introduction to the teaching profession in an effort to help them become more knowledgeable about learning and more effective as instructors. The Fall 2010 course will be taught by Joe Stepans. Joe is a Professor Emeritus from the University of Wyoming and was a science and math educator. Joe received the John P Ellbogen Award for Meritorious Teaching and brings more than 30 years of teaching experience to the classroom.

- The course provides opportunities to learn more about student learning as well as investigate current teaching and learning issues in specific disciplines.
- Students gain knowledge, experience, skills, and competencies that contribute to success in the classroom or in work environments.
- Students study recommendations of scholars as rationale for teaching and learning; examine a variety of instructional strategies and their appropriateness for college students; and investigate assessment and evaluation.
- Enrollment is capped at 25.

This class is scheduled Mondays from 4:10—7:00 pm in EA 211.

The course is listed in the registrar’s Fall 2010 Class Schedule under Fall Course Offerings, “Other Programs” GRAD-Graduate School:
