We'd be happy to subscribe them. Just email jaimea@uwyo.edu

Please Note: All submissions are evaluated by a committee.

registration visit our website at: www.uwyo.edu/inbre/funding

All Proposals Must Be Submitted Electronically and In-advance (no later than two weeks before the beginning of the conference) include:

- Panel discussion (2 or more presenters, 50 minutes each)
- Paper Presentation (30 minutes)
- Performance Presentation (Plays, staged readings, and dance) (25 minutes)
- Poster session (1 hour)

The conference organizers will combine all presentations into a single bound volume and distributed to all attendees. The contents of this volume are subject to copyright. Proposals cannot be combined with a contract for presentation.

Conference Presentations:

Presentations are divided into four tracks. Each track includes a panel discussion, paper presentations, and poster sessions.

- Social Justice: Race, Gender, Class, and Sexual Identity: This track will focus on issues related to Social Justice, focusing on race, gender, class, and sexual identity. The panel discussion will include a discussion on the intersection of these issues. The paper presentations will explore the impact of these intersections on individuals and communities. The poster sessions will provide an opportunity for attendees to present their research.

- Race, Gender, and Class: This track will focus on issues related to race, gender, and class. The panel discussion will include a discussion on the impact of these issues on individuals and communities. The paper presentations will explore the impact of these issues on individuals and communities. The poster sessions will provide an opportunity for attendees to present their research.

- Sexual Identity: This track will focus on issues related to sexual identity. The panel discussion will include a discussion on the impact of these issues on individuals and communities. The paper presentations will explore the impact of these issues on individuals and communities. The poster sessions will provide an opportunity for attendees to present their research.

- Social Justice: This track will focus on issues related to Social Justice. The panel discussion will include a discussion on the impact of these issues on individuals and communities. The paper presentations will explore the impact of these issues on individuals and communities. The poster sessions will provide an opportunity for attendees to present their research.

This conference is open to anyone interested in these issues. The conference will provide a breadth of perspectives on these issues, including presentations from scholars, practitioners, and activists.

The conference will be held on October 2, 2011. The conference will feature keynote speakers and a range of presentations. The conference will be a great opportunity to learn about the latest research and to network with others interested in these issues.

-A. W. A. S. T. R. O. N. M. C. AS.

-One of our challenges is limited funding for programming. We are starting an Alumni group for the RRC. If you are a graduate of the RRC, please contact us at cetc@uwyo.edu or (307) 766-5200 to learn more about how you can support the RRC.

We invite you to participate in the 16th Annual Shepard Study Group on Gender and Sexuality. This group meets every Wednesday from 12 pm to 1 pm. Wendy Hall, a mental health counselor, will be hosting a presentation on mindfulness. Mindfulness is the practice of being aware of the present moment through meditation. After the presentation, there will be time for questions and blow off some of that finals stress! The RRC will provide hot chocolate and hot apple cider. Please join us for this special event.

A Reminder to RRC Users

Are You an Alumni of the RRC?

We are starting an Alumni group for the RRC. If you are a graduate of the RRC, please contact us at cetc@uwyo.edu or (307) 766-5200 to learn more about how you can support the RRC.

One of our challenges is limited funding for programming. We are starting an Alumni group for the RRC. If you are a graduate of the RRC, please contact us at cetc@uwyo.edu or (307) 766-5200 to learn more about how you can support the RRC.

The RRC would like to thank ASUW and its senators for considering our proposal and granting funds to the Non-Profit Community Services Program. This program supports the RRC's mission to provide a safe and supportive environment for individuals and communities marginalized by gender, sexuality, and identity.