The University of Wyoming brings three members of its award-winning faculty to Cody to share global research with Wyoming relevance. This Saturday University takes us on a journey around the world to discuss women’s suffrage, the armed man, and human/animal encounter—all issues that resonate in Wyoming.

Moderator, Professor Caroline McCracken-Flesher, Director Center for Global Studies, University of Wyoming

9:00 AM • The Visual Propaganda of Women’s Suffrage: Legacies in Wyoming, New Zealand and Australia

Dr. Colleen Denney, Ph.D., Professor of Art History and Gender and Women’s Studies, UW

9:00 AM • The Armed Man: A Figure in Mexican Cultural Politics

Dr. Nicholas Crane, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Geography and International Studies, UW

10:00 AM • Fragmenting Habitats and Human-Elephant Conflicts in Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu, India

Dr. Ramesh Sivanpillai, Ph.D., Research Scientist, Wyoming Geographic Information Science Center

Presentations followed by a roundtable discussion with speakers over a free lunch.