Second Annual Community Conversations Social Justice Symposium

Schedule of Events

Thursday, Sept. 19

5:00-6:00 Alice Hardie Stevens Center
Conversation Kickstarter Reception: Wine, Beer, Hors d’oeuvres Potluck

6:00-7:00 Speaker: Andrew Campbell “Championing Equity and Inclusion through Courageous Conversations”

Friday, Sept. 20

College of Law Room 178

- Kirsten Having and Neely Mahapatra—Contextual challenges of combatting human trafficking in Wyoming: Findings of an exploratory study with health care providers
- Emily Monago—Forgiveness where we learn, live, and work: Restorative justice promoting accountability, empowerment, reconciliation, and reintegration after hurtful behaviors in campus communities
- Chian Jones Ritten—Gender Differences in Negotiation Behavior and Negotiated Market Outcomes
- Carlos Gonzales, Jennifer Tabler, Jamie Snyder—Measurement of Gender and Sexualities in National Surveys

9:30-9:55 Panel: Beyond Visibility

- Singular panel organized by Christi Carter

10:00-10:45 Paper Presentations: Critical Pedagogy

- Isaih Dale—Teaching While Black: Reimagining the Graduate Pedagogy Course and Entry-Level Writing
- Holly Stooksbury—Antisemitism and Its Place in History
- Tiger Robison—Redefining and Decentralizing Masculinity: The Role of Men Working in Early Education

10:45-11:00 Morning Break

11:00-11:25 Book Reading: Outlaw Women: Prison, Rural Violence, and Poverty in the American West

- Catherine Connolly, Susan Dewey, Bonnie Zare, Rhett Epler, Rosemary Bratton

11:30-11:55 Phenomenal Women: Finding Solidarity to STEM the Tide of Bias in Science
• Singular panel organized by Rachel Watson

12:00-1:00  Lunch—Talking Circles

1:00-1:55  Paper Presentations: Historical Perspectives on Social Justice

• Arielle Zibrak—Madness and Misogyny: Believing Women in American Life and Letters
• Fredrick Douglass Dixon—America’s Contemporary Lynching Movement: The Public Assassination of Laquan McDonald, Sixteen Shots and a Cover-Up
• Colleen Denney: Lena Connell's Portraits of Women Leaders in the Edwardian Suffrage Movement: Lives that Matter

2:00-2:45  Work's-In-Progress

• Lora Sherrodd: Fifty Percent Dizzy: Dizzy Gillespie’s Secret Daughter, Jeanie Bryson
• Heather Webb Springer: Higher Education Access as a Social Justice Issue for Individuals Who Have Experienced Incarceration
• Alison Harkin: Teaching a Gender and Women's Studies Class in 1920

2:45-3:00  Afternoon Break

3:00-3:25  The Access Initiative: Faculty Learning Community for UDL & Inclusive Pedagogy

• Singular Panel organized by Christi Boggs

3:30-3:55  Paper Presentations: Music, Culture, and Social Justice

• Ulrich Adelt—No More Tears: Donna Summer and the Culture of Dissemblance
• Joy Landeira—Synesthetic Gaze, Tessellating Triangles, and Triangulated Desire in Ventura Pons’ Food of Love and David Leavitt’s The Page Turner

4:30-7:00  Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Awards Dinner

Alice Hardie Stevens Center

Speaker: Reyna Grande “Immigration & Transformation: Writing to Change the World”