Records Release Statement and Signature:

In order to track the progress of Student Success Services (SSS) participants through their undergraduate career, SSS staff will need to access student information. Current and past academic standing, coursework, midterm or final grades, attendance, placement scores, college enrollment status, scholarship or financial aid application and award status, and official transcripts may be requested from UW instructors or staff. In order to remain compliant to this federally-funded grant, we are required to share student data including GPA, enrollment status, income and/or first generation status, and social security number with the US Department of Education.

- I authorize the SSS Program office to obtain information on my academic status, financial aid, and registration records for grant reporting purposes. I understand that this information is to be used for appraising the effectiveness of the SSS program and services, increasing the effectiveness of the program, to maintain active grant status, and to determine current and future participation status.
- I authorize the SSS Program to receive information about my academic status and progress toward graduation in any baccalaureate program in which I enroll.

I certify that the information on this application is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge. I hereby authorize the Student Success Services program to obtain any information from my educational records (e.g., transcripts, entrance test scores, grades, instructor contacts, etc.) and to perform staffing activities that may be pertinent to my participation in this project. I also agree that, if I am selected to participate in the SSS project, I will work with my staff advisor to develop and implement an individual Education Action Plan.

* Income-Eligibility Chart

Funding for the Student Success Services program is provided by the U.S. Department of Education. The USDE requires proof that funds are serving those for whom they are intended. For that reason, documentation of your eligibility status is required.

If the TAXABLE INCOME (not adjusted gross income) on your income tax form is less than the amount shown on the chart below, you are considered income-eligible. Taxable income above these guidelines does not necessarily eliminate you from qualifying for our program.

Federal TRIO Programs Current-Year Low-Income Levels

(Effective January 11, 2019 until further notice)

Size of Family Unit	48 Contiguous States, D.C., and Outlying Jurisdictions	Alaska	Hawaii
1	$18,735	$23,400	$21,570
2	$25,365	$31,695	$29,190
3	$31,995	$39,990	$36,810
4	$38,625	$48,285	$44,430
5	$45,255	$56,580	$52,050
6	$51,885	$64,875	$59,670
7	$58,515	$73,170	$67,290
8	$65,145	$81,465	$74,910

For family units with more than eight members, add the following amount for each additional family member: $6,630 for the 48 contiguous states, the District of Columbia and outlying jurisdictions; $8,295 for Alaska; and $7,620 for Hawaii.

The term "low-income individual" means an individual whose family's taxable income for the preceding year did not exceed 150 percent of the poverty level amount.

The figures shown under family income represent amounts equal to 150 percent of the family income levels established by the Census Bureau for determining poverty status. The 2019 poverty guidelines are in effect as of January 11, 2019. Federal Register notice forthcoming. Publication is delayed due to temporary closure of federal offices.
