Transportation:

Travel to London, Ontario:

By air: Attendees can fly to Toronto International Airport (YYZ) and rent a car/shuttle to London (180km away/2 hour drive) or schedule a connecting flight from YYZ to the London International Airport (YXU). London International Airport is primarily serviced by Air Canada (flights to/from Toronto/Pearson International and Ottawa), WestJet (flights... to/from Calgary and Winnipeg) and United Airlines (flights to/from Chicago/O’Hare International and Newark).

By rail: London Railway System is located in downtown London and is serviced by Via Rail that connects the city with Sarnia, Windsor and the major transportation hub represented by Toronto’s Union Station.

By road: Situated approximately 200km away from both Toronto and Detroit, London can be reached easily by means of 401 and 402 highways that pass the city by the south at around 10km from Western University. Bus service to downtown station is provided by Greyhound that has direct service from London to a number of cities in Ontario, Michigan and New York. Alternate bus route options are provided by Robert Q Airbus that connects London primarily to Toronto/Pearson and Detroit/Metro airports.

Local Transportation:

All meeting sessions will take place at the Ivey Spencer Leadership Center. A number of privately owned companies provide taxi service within the city. While relatively accurate estimations of the fares can be obtained here, it is still recommended to verify the cost of the trip before boarding the cab.
