Brooks Tueting is a Partner at Patterson + Sheridan, LLP, a nationally recognized full-service intellectual property (IP) and technology law firm. He earned his bachelor's degree from Baylor University in Biology with a minor in Chemistry before attending the University of Wyoming College of Law for his Juris Doctor. Licensed to practice law in the state of Texas and with the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Tueting has been with the firm since 2011 where he has excelled in IP law and litigation. Acting as in-house counsel for several clients, he ensures their IP efforts align with their business goals, while also providing patent prep and prosecution services, litigation support, and portfolio analysis.
