Art Museum Exhibition

"Spring on the Snake," by Skip Whitcomb, is among the works featured in the exhibition, "Painting the American West," on display at the UW Art Museum. "Painting the American West" examines how artists see, think and interpret their observations, thoughts and emotions about the Western landscape. Read more. Skiing Season

Riley Hopeman, a senior from Lander, and his University of Wyoming Nordic club ski teammates, will compete in three NCAA-sanctioned meets this season. The UW Nordic ski team is now an associate member of the Rocky Mountain Intercollegiate Ski Association and will compete in the Western Conference. However, the Cowboys and Cowgirls will still compete in the year-end United States Collegiate Ski and Snowboard Association (USCSA) championships in Sugarloaf, Maine. UW has competed in the USCSA since the university adopted Nordic skiing as a club-level sport. Read more. (UW Photo)
