Applications are requested for an academic professional at the assistant/associate lecturer level for the University of Wyoming. This position is physically located in Laramie. The anticipated start date for this position is fall, 2017. Social workers with 1 year of experience teaching in higher education are encouraged to apply.

The University of Wyoming invites diverse applicants to consider our employment opportunities. We are also especially interested in candidates who have experience working with diverse populations and/or diverse initiatives.

The Division of Social Work offers a Generalist BSW program and an Advanced Generalist MSW program enrolling approximately 75 undergraduate and 40 graduate students. The University and the Division of Social Work maintain outreach centers across Wyoming providing excellent opportunities for community practice and research. The MSW program uses teleconferencing to deliver portions of the curriculum statewide. The University of Wyoming is located in Laramie, a town of 30,000 in the heart of the Rocky Mountain West. Wyoming is investing in its university, helping to make it a leader in academics, research and outreach.

Responsibilities include: teaching across curricula: a range of BSW & MSW classes; student recruitment, admission, and advisement; field liaison work; and University and community service. The position may require evening teaching, travel within the state, and teaching using distance delivery systems.

Minimum Qualifications

Applicant must have:

- A social work degree from a CSWE-accredited institution
- A graduate degree from an accredited institution
- Two years of full-time direct practice experience, and
- One year of college teaching experience in social work or related field

Desired Qualifications

An MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited institution.

Required Materials

Please complete the online application including uploading as one, single .PDF document: a cover letter, your current curriculum vitae, teaching philosophy essay, official transcripts, and three letters of professional recommendation.
*Note: Applicants may have official transcripts and professional letters of reference sent directly to the search chair at the address below. These are the only documents that may be sent separately. Other documents requested above must be uploaded as one .PDF document.

Contact information for questions:

Dr. Neely Mahapatra, Search Chair
Division of Social Work
Dept. 3632, 1000 E. University Ave.
Laramie, WY 82071

Review of applications will begin no later than January 23rd, 2017 and continue until the position is filled. Qualified applicants may also be asked to submit samples of syllabi from courses taught.

Hiring Statement

The University of Wyoming is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law and University policy. To review the EEO is the Law Poster and its Supplement, please see The Diversity & Fairness page.

We conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Offers of employment are contingent upon the completion of the background check.

Applicants with disabilities may request accommodation to complete the application and selection process. Please notify Human Resources at least three (3) working days prior to the date of need.

Welcome to Laramie

The University of Wyoming is located in Laramie, a town of 30,000 in the heart of the Rocky Mountain West. Wyoming is investing in its university, helping to make it a leader in academics, research and outreach.

The university has state-of-the-art facilities in many areas and is a cultural center for the state. Located on a high plain between the Laramie and Snowy Range mountain ranges, Laramie has more than 300 days of sunshine a year and is near year-round outdoor activities that include skiing, hiking, camping, bicycling, fishing and climbing.

The community provides the advantages of a major university and a distinctive identity as an important city in a frontier state. Laramie is near many of Colorado’s major cities and university communities (Fort Collins: 1 hour; Boulder: 1.5 hours; Denver: 2 hours; Colorado Springs: 4 hours).