

Indirect Assessment of Undergraduate Learning Goals (SOC3090: Sociological Methods)

Please indicate your agreement with each of the statements with:

- '1' being Strongly Disagree to '5' being Strongly Agree.

1. This course enabled me to bring together the ideas and methods from my other sociology courses.                    1        2        3        4        5

2. This course helped me so that I can now design a research project on my own.                    1        2        3        4        5

3. This course helped me to apply the material from other courses in sociology to the research process.                    1        2        3        4        5

4. I have learned to express sociological ideas more clearly & coherently in writing?                    1        2        3        4        5

5. This course made me aware of what it means to be a sociologist.                    1        2        3        4        5

The remaining statements (7-9) are not about this course but are about the Department of Sociology.

7. I clearly understood the department requirements for completing a sociology major.                    1        2        3        4        5

8. I would rate the academic advising I received from my sociology advisor as excellent.                    1        2        3        4        5

9. I would rate the career advising I received from my sociology advisor as excellent.                    1        2        3        4        5

10. What was the best thing you like about being a sociology major?