XI. Officer Reports
   a. President, Renee Ballard
      i. In response to the transit and parking study preliminary results that were released recently, Staff Senate Executive Committee submitted a letter to President Nichols, President True, and Neil Theobald. A copy of the letter is copied below along with a response from both Neil Theobald and President True.
      ii. The subject of professional development and career advancement has had a slight adjustment this past month. I have spoken with Michael Barker, chair of the new Strategic Implementation Team, several times and we agreed that this subject should be explored by a task force that will be under the Strategic Implementation Team. This task force will begin their work by looking at the information that has been accumulated jointly by the Staff Senate Executive Committee, Human Resources Dept., Information Technology, Provost Office, and the Department of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion. Staff Senate looks forward to seeing what lies ahead for this important topic.

iii. After discussing our concerns about the staff appointments to the Strategic Implementation Team, Michael Barker informed me they added an additional staff appointment and asked us for our recommendation for this position. Crystal Bennett was recommended by us and she accepted the appointment.

iv. Staff Senate continues to have a number of open seats, but our leadership recently surfaced 23 new nominations and our Credentials and Elections committee is busy contacting these individuals to see if there is any interest in serving. The senate has elected our officers for next year and Senator Blevins will be sharing that information.

v. I have spoken with several different individuals regarding concerns about evaluations. I know that Human Resources is also aware of these difficulties. The deadline for evaluations has been pushed back in part due to some of these issues.

vi. I want to say a quick THANK YOU to Chair Hedrick and her Recognition Committee for all their hard work on Staff Recognition Day. I’m looking forward to celebrating with all of you tomorrow. If you haven’t signed up to help out, there is still time and I strongly encourage you to do so.

vii. The staff senate also finished up their survey regarding staff and their need for federal assistance. The survey has shown that 82 full-time UW staff reported to currently receiving a form of public assistance. We had more staff indicate they would be receiving assistance if not for their second jobs. The survey also showed a higher percentage of employees currently have a second position than was expected, however the reason for second positions was not explored. A copy of the survey results was shared in the Staff Senate Newsletter.

viii. Board of Trustees

1. The Academic Calendar Committee continues to move forward and administered a survey regarding J term. The next meeting is April 3rd at 4pm.

2. The HLC gave an accreditation update and explored option of how to help the Board of Trustees prepare for the accreditation visit.

3. Many individuals showed up to speak words of support for President Nichols at open Forum. There was also concern over Student Housing from the Community.

4. Kyle Moore gave a update on our Spring 15th day enrollment report

5. Kyle Moore and David Jewell also explained that due to our increase in enrollment, we may be growing more than we can afford to give the waivers and Institutional Scholarships that are provided. Last year an estimated 10 million dollars was awarded (lost tuition) to out of state students. The issue is being examined on how to best make adjustments.

6. The Salary Distribution Policy changes were not approved but were going to be re-examined at the May meeting.
7. The legislative money for FY 20 was discussed. The money did not include amounts for self-operating or grant funded employees. The university is looking at ways to fund these raises as well.
8. AVP Durr could not say whether or not employees who receive less than a 3 would receive the adjustment.
9. A Bachelor of General Studies Degree was approved
10. A Undergraduate Elementary & Special Education Degree was approved
11. The Proposal to Reorganize, Consolidate, and Reduce Academic Degree Programs in Geography were approved
12. Underground Gas Line Easement at Cirrus Sky and Harney Regulation Station were both approved
13. Engineering Roof Replacement has been approved
14. College of Law Expansion & Renovation Consultant Selection was approved
15. UW/NPS & NPS Partnership Agreement was approved
16. HCM going online has been delayed
17. LOTS of tracking and reports will be needed based on the passed Legislation from this year’s session

ix. Parking and Transit Letter:
1. Dear President Nichols, Vice President Theobald, and Chair True:
   As the Parking and Transportation study moves into its final stages, the Staff Senate executive committee would like to share the following concerns with you.
   Many staff members have expressed a concern over the recommendation to move to a tiered fee structure. While this proposal has been framed as a matter of preference for close parking, we feel that it raises an issue of equity. Pricing core campus parking at a higher rate than peripheral and remote lots effectively reserves core lots for faculty and administration while pricing out the lower paid employees on campus. This forces them to park in the remote lots. These employees are often the very employees who have limited flexibility in their work schedules and are required to come in early, prior to the beginning of bus service.
   A second concern brought to our attention involves workplace expectations. Many staff members are currently expected to utilize their own vehicles to conduct University business during the work day. In addition, there is an expectation for many staff members that they will be at their workstation prior to the start of their work day regardless of weather or other transportation contingencies. Staff members report that they experience anxiety at the thought of relying on transit because they feel that they may experience repercussions when informing their supervisor that they will no longer be able to run errands during the work day. Additionally, there is a fear that there will be disciplinary action if they occasionally arrive late due to insufficient bus capacities and transit running behind schedule. As we enter a transitional period where parking is concerned, messaging from upper administration on these two issues would be extremely helpful to these employees. Staff Senate requests an open and transparent conversation between administration and all campus supervisors regarding the potential impacts of an increase reliance on transit and how this could affect staff.
Finally, many staff members have raised a concern that the parking and transportation study report will present an inaccurate picture of the parking situation on campus given the changes that the construction of new student housing will create. Our understanding is that the scope of the parking and transportation study did not include these changes, and that they will not be reflected in the final report. We request that the final report be expanded to include the significant changes the campus will be undergoing in the near future.

We truly appreciate your time and attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Renee Ballard
Kristin Blevins

Lindsay Galey
Jason Gonzales

x. Responses to Parking and Transit Letters:

Thanks, Renée, for passing along the Staff Senate comments which certainly merit careful consideration. And, thanks Neil, for your reply and including me.

Again, thanks to you both,
Dave

xi. Renee:

Thank you for these well-stated, substantive responses to the initial Walker Consulting study. The results of the final Walker study will be data -- along with surveys that we are conducting -- which are being provided to our Master Planning Mobility Task Force for their deliberations over the next nine months.

On Wednesday, I will update Staff Senate on this issue and answer any questions or concerns that Senators may have. Any recommendations/proposals for campus parking will be included in the January 2020 campus master plan final report.

Neil

b. Vice President, David Keto

i. I just have a few topics to touch on for future reference:
   1. If you have guests, you’d like to have come visit our meeting to cover any topics of interest let me know, we don’t have any other special guests scheduled through the rest of the year so there’s plenty of space.
   2. I’ll be starting on planning our charity fundraiser over the next month so if you have strong opinions on that let me know. As discussed briefly at one of our previous meetings we’re thinking of doing a cornhole tournament on Prexy’s over the summer perhaps to fundraiser for the pilot hill project (this replaces relay for life)

3. I’ll also be working on dates and an agenda for our annual staff senate retreat at the beginning of the new senate year in July, if you have anything for the retreat agenda let me know

4. The Travel policy task force has not yet met, so no update there.
