Area of Concentration or an University Approved Minor
 Elementary Education majors must select either one of four approved areas of concentration or an approved minor. Please consult your advisor or the Teacher Preparation and Advising Office for additional information.

The approved areas of concentration include: Creative Arts; International Education Studies/American Cultural Diversity; Environmental Studies; and Interdisciplinary Early Childhood. Students must complete at least 18 credit hours within that area,

If a minor is desired, please note the following:
 1. The minor must be declared with the Office of the Registrar.
 2. An advisor for the minor requirements from that department is highly recommended.
 3. If the minor requirements are not met prior to graduation, the minor must be officially undeclared to graduate.
 4. A minor can not be finished after the associated degree is conferred by the University of Wyoming.
