

The U W Department of Music, Cultural Outreach, and UW's Winter Session are offering another
MUSICAL TOUR OF NEW YORK CITY

December 17-23, 2016, immediately following exam week.
Dr. Michael Griffith, conductor of the UW Symphony, is leading this trip.

For further information, email Dr. Griffith at symph@uwyo.edu

COST: $1,750 (2 to a room)
$1,590 (3 to a room) – $1,505 (4 to a room)

Performances:

- New York City Ballet's *Nutcracker, with choreography by George Balanchine: so many beautiful dancers, so many magical sets and the one-ton Christmas tree that no one can ever forget.
- The Broadway musical *Cats, Andrew Lloyd Webber's wonderful, fanciful show, winner of 7 Tony Awards! Plus we may have a Post-Show Discussion with cast members.
- Verdi's dramatic, symbolic Nabucco at the Metropolitan Opera House, starring Plácido Domingo and conducted by James Levine.
- Jazz at Lincoln Center's *Big Band Holiday show with Wynton Marsalis and the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra.
- Handel's Messiah at Carnegie Hall with Musica Sacre, New York's leading professional chorus.
- The Radio City Music Hall *Christmas Spectacular, starring the world-famous Rockettes and their signature eye-high kicks and precision choreography, a NY Christmas tradition which has dazzled for over 75 years

Tours (subject to availability):

- A guided backstage tour of the Metropolitan Opera House.
- A guided tour of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, focusing on art inspired by music, theatre, and dance, plus time to explore the entire museum.
- A guided tour of the Steinway and Sons piano factory.
- A tour of historic Carnegie Hall.

And:

- A traditional New York delicatessen feast.
- A wonderful group dinner on Times Square.

Optional:

Ice skate at Rockefeller Center, go to the top of the Empire State Building or the Statue of Liberty, see another Broadway show or opera, visit the Museum of Modern Art, or do any of the other things visitors to NYC have available. Free time has been built into the schedule for you.

The cost includes:

- Round-trip air fare from Denver
- Hotel rooms just a block from Times Square
- All concert tickets, the guided tours and the two dinners
- Airport transportation in NY

To reserve a place on the trip, contact Phil Moline in the Fine Arts Box Office, 766-6666.

A deposit of $500 is due by October 1.

50% of your remaining balance is due October 14. The rest of balance is due November 11. All funds are non-refundable unless we can replace you or get refunds for you from the airline, concert venues, etc.

The 3-to-a-room or 4-to-a-room discounts are available if you have roommates committed. Dr. Griffith will try to match you with others if you request it, but that cannot be guaranteed.

Not covered:

- Most meals. Our hotel is in easy walking distance of fast food, a coffee shop, a market, a deli, etc., and has its own food court. One can eat cheaply or elegantly in New York. You choose.
- Extra sightseeing or shows on your own.
- United Airlines checked baggage fees.
- $31 for a week's subway pass. If you prefer, cabs are easy to hail in NY.

Course Credit is available under MUSIC 4990, Special Topics, 2 credits, pass/fail.

Credits are for Winter Session, not part of your fall load.

Preview lectures from Dr. Griffith in the days prior to departure are required for credit.

New York in December is so beautiful, with holiday displays in the store windows, the famous tree at Rockefeller Center, and decorations everywhere. You won't want to miss this incredible opportunity!
