AND

12 credits from Spanish (SPAN) or Chicano Studies (CHST), or courses related to the history, art and political science of the Spanish-speaking world, in consultation with your academic advisor in addition to other required course work. For those who wish to complete the ESL Endorsement, six of these hours can be earned by taking EDCI 5430 and EDCI 5440, or through study abroad in a Spanish-speaking country. [See #4 under Notes.]

STUDY ABROAD:
Studying abroad in a Spanish-speaking country is strongly recommended. Students are encouraged to study abroad to attain the desired target language proficiency goal and to develop first-hand knowledge of Hispanic cultures. The minimum length of this experience should be one semester or two summers, both in a structured language program, preferably in a home stay situation.

UW offers a variety of study-abroad programs. Consult with your academic advisor and with International Programs faculty for details.

LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENT:
In rating your oral and written Spanish language proficiency, the Department of Secondary Education uses the scale developed by the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL). You must take the OPI and WPT and demonstrate that you have attained a score of Advanced Low or better on both assessments prior to enrollment in EDSE 4276 (Modern Languages Methods II). Note that the oral and written language proficiency requirements are mandated by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

Notes:
1) The student in consultation with a language advisor will select appropriate language courses in addition to the requirements listed.

2) Completion of 100% of Major Content Courses is strongly recommended prior to Phase IIIA.

3) The University of Wyoming ESL Endorsement program consists of 15 credit hours and requiring four three-credit courses: ENGL/LANG 4785, EDCI 4350/5350, EDCI 5430, EDCI 5440 as well as a three credit practicum experience: EDCI 5580. For more information about the ESL Endorsement program, see http://www.uwyo.edu/esl/ or consult with your academic advisor for details.

4) A summer session must be no shorter than a four-week intensive program in order to be counted towards the study abroad requirement.
