BACKGROUND AND POLICY CONTEXT OF ISSUE:
UW Regulation 5-1 states that “Upon recommendation of the appropriate administrative and/or academic officers and with the approval of the President of the University, Leaves of Absence Without Pay may be granted to academic personnel by the Trustees for a period normally not in excess of one (1) contract year.” The academic personnel report includes a leave of absence without pay. This type of leave may be approved for the following purposes:

- Professional Development - After the initial probationary period has been completed, extended leaves without pay may be granted to employees for purposes of professional development;
- Personal Leave of Absence - Approval of this type of leave may only be granted based upon the needs of the University. Additionally, this type of leave may only be granted for significant circumstances that are unforeseen, unplanned for, and of a true emergency nature (personal or family emergency).
- Specific provisions for sabbatical leaves and other faculty leaves of absence are contained in UW Regulation 5-1.

Dean Paula Lutz and President Nichols recommend approval of this request.
