* Law school participation in graduate commencement is optional and will continue to hold its own session.
Graduate Commencement Procedures

- Hooding of Master’s graduates occurs off-stage.
  - Floor manager appointed to manage the cue or “chute.”
  - Readers announce name and field of study for masters’ candidates using a pre-printed card.
  - Pre-select and train masters’ hooding marshals for hooding masters’ candidates off-stage.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

Graduate Commencement Procedures

• Hooding of doctoral candidates to occur on-stage.
  – Stage manager of doctoral cue to move doctoral candidates into place.
  – Readers to announce candidate name, name of chair, and field of study using a pre-printed card.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

Graduate Commencement Procedures

  – Doctoral chairs that want to participate in doctoral hooding process must attend a mandatory pre-training session.
  – Doctoral hooding training could consist of viewing a pre-recorded hooding process video available online or arrive early to the graduate commencement ceremony, 11:15 AM, and attend a process training for hooding doctoral candidates.

  – If Doctoral Chairs can’t view the video training or attend early, hooding marshals at the ceremony can demonstrate the proper hooding process off stage.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Processional and Recessional
  – Needs to be done in under 15 minutes as a part of the ceremony
  – Gonfalons
    • College Only, No Departments/Schools
    • Carried into the AA by Floor Marshalls
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Processional and Recessional

    • Other campus-based performance groups
    • Bagpipe and drum corps
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Processional and Recessional
  – We recommend live performance groups to avoid costly pre-recorded music licensing issues.
  – Announcers
    • We recommend hiring two or three experienced and notable announcers.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Colors
  – Post colors during commencement exercise not before.
  – Play and invite audience to sing the National Anthem.
  – Retire colors prior to recessional as preferred by the military.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Reading of Names
  – 4 readers needed per commencement session, 2 at each ramp entry
  – Stage Manager will cue when to move candidates into position
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Reading of Names

  – Process:

    • Graduate Students –

      – Doctoral Candidates - Announce Degree Recipient Name, Name of Dissertation Chair or Hooding Helper, Field of Study

      – Masters’ Candidates – Announce Degree Recipient Name, Field of Study
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Reading of Names
  • Undergraduate Students –
    – Announce Program, School, or Department, Honors graduation (Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Cum Laude) and be recognized.
    – is applicable, and Degree Recipient Name
  • Stage managers use a timer and cue lighting system to keep the reading of names moving efficiently.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Reading of Names (Undergraduates continued)

  • Program Coordinator or Department Head leads undergraduates to stage by program, school or department
  • Marshals move students and program coordinator/department head into lines on two sides of stage/platform entry.

  – Readers read name of the department, program or school on a card given to the first graduate in a group by the program, school or department head, then readers read the names of each undergraduate candidate.

  – 2 Photographers are located off stage to take photos on two sides of platform or stage.
OTHER RECOMMENDATIONS

• Commencement Program
  – 1 program for all commencement ceremonies.
  – Put up a sign at each distribution point requesting guest to pick up “Only one copy per person” and information saying that more digital copies are available online @ a specified web address.
